Youths Unhurt In Car Plunge After Collision

Pair Receives Only Minor Injuries From Rural Road Accident

Two youths escaped with minor injuries when their car rounded a curve on Grimms Bridge Rd. and struck a rural mailman's auto then plunged down an embankment Friday afternoon at 2.

Eugene Michael, 18, of 1669 Ohio Ave., the driver, and Daniel Germanovich, also 18, of 116 Grant St., Newell, were treated at City Hospital following the crash with the auto driven by Reid Densmore, 32, of 456 Densmore Ave.

The State Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Michael, headed north lost control on a curve and hit the oncoming auto of Densmore who was on his mail delivery route.

Witnesses said Germanovich, knocked underneath the dashboard, rode with the 1947 Cadillac coupe until it slammed against a tree about 30 feet down the hillside, preventing it from continuing down another 100 feet.

Michael was thrown out of the car before it began its descent. Densmore was unhurt.

The patrol said the left front side of Densmore's 1952 sedan was damaged heavily, while the front and left rear of the other auto was also damaged.

Michael was fined $25 and costs by Mayor William Shoub of Wellsville for reckless operation. He was treated for a laceration of the left arm, and Germanovich was treated for a cut of the right side of the face. Both were taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Clarence May, 21, of Hanoverton R. D. 1 was cited for reckless operation after his car veered off a curve of Egypt Rd. near Salem at 11:30 p. m. and rolled over. He was unhurt, officers said.

Irondale Woman, City Man Figure In Crash

Minor damage was reported in a collision between cars of a city man and an Irondale area woman on Route 7 south of Wellsville Friday, the State Highway Patrol at Wintersville reported.

A car driven by Mildred Smith, 33, of Irondale R. D. 1 entered Route 7 from Route 213 into the

Officer's Slayer Taken From Pen To Hospital

Raymond Porter, convicted slayer of a city special officer, has been transferred from the Ohio State Penitentiary at Columbus to Lima State Hospital, County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw revealed.

Porter, 24, was found guilty in May 1957 of the shooting of Joseph Mumford, a special officer, at a McDonald St. home in November 1956. He was sentenced to life in prison.

While visiting at Columbus last week Brokaw said he learned from Warden Ralph Alvis that Porter had been taken to Lima for treatment about six weeks ago.

Brokaw and Atty. Samuel Chertoff — Porter's counsel who submitted a plea of insanity at the trial—said they did not know the specific reason for the transfer.

Youth, 15, Tells Of Fight For Life

GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (AP)—A teen-age Georgia boy, hungry, blistered by the sun, scratched and cut by boulders, today told in a soft, southern accent the story of his six-day fight for life in the wilds of the Grand Canyon.

John Manson Owens, 15, of Savannah, was found Friday lying on a sandbar along the Colorado River. His two companions on a hiking trip into the awesome gorge had perished.

He was brought by an Army helicopter from the canyon to a hospital on the gorge's rim.

There, from his bed and between sips of orange juice, he related an amazing story of courage, determination and death.

He told how the Rev. Eugene A. Gavigan, 30, and Walter J. Mahany Jr., 16, both of Savannah, lost in their bids for survival. He told how he won.

This is his story:

"We left Friday (July 23). The padre (Father Gavigan) said 15 years ago when he was a little boy, he found a silver mine down the trail. We talked him into taking us. We were head over heels to go.

"We took three bottles of water, a snake-bite kit, a first-aid kit and some food. All the water gave out the first day. Then we lost the trail at night. None of us could sleep because of thirst. Early the next morning we walked along a cliff for what seemed like miles. We didn't have any more food. We starting eating cactus pulp.

"I started yelling. Some joker on the other side started yelling like an ape or something. Somebody else hollered 'Do you really need help.' I hollered yes.

"Then we decided to go back to the river to get water. We came to a cliff. It was slick and steep. The padre said take off your shoes. We started down the cliff. The padre slipped. He turned about eight times. He hit his head, bounced a couple of times and landed on his back.

"Pete (Mahany) went into hysterics. He wanted to help the father. We just couldn't make it down that cliff. I knew the padre was dead.

"We started back to the river. About a mile and a half from the

Walter Ashbaugh Is First To File For School Board

C. Walter Ashbaugh, vice president of the Board of Education, today became the first to seek re-election to a four-year term while Salem gained a fourth candidate for a school board post in the Nov. 3 general election.

Ashbaugh was among seven nonpartisan candidates to file with the County Election Board, boosting the total number of candidates to 93 on the fall ballot.

Two other incumbent members of the East Liverpool board also are expected to file for new terms before the deadline Wednesday at 4 p. m. They are James B. Moss and James Lowe.

Ashbaugh, active in Chamber of Commerce, Upper Ohio Valley Development Council and civic affairs, was elected in the 1955 general election in a write-in campaign.

He became a write-in candidate when only two candidates filed for three seats on the board. He previously served on the school board several years ago.

Salem's new candidate for a school board post is Stephen Gonda while John C. Ewing filed for re-election fo a four-year term on the southern Local Board of Education.

The other new candidates include Earl L. Davis for clerk and Stewart L. Dyke for trustee of Middleton Township, Clarence Blosser for constable of St. Clair Township, and James W. Ewing for clerk of Wayne Township.

Planes Aid 500 Men Fighting Forest Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—More than 500 men, aided by borate-bombing planes, strove today to control a 6,000-acre forest fire which has burned to within seven air miles of Yosemite National Park's south boundary.

Aerial tankers, mostly old converted Navy bombers, dropped the fire-snuffing borate in areas where terrain permitted medium and low altitude flying. The borate acts as a blanket, keeping oxygen from the flames.

Seventy Folsom Prison convicts swelled the fire-fighting lines as the flames spread into Sierra National Forest.

It was the only serious fire remaining of those which have laid waste nearly 20,000 acres in northern California the past 10 days while being battled by more than 2,700 men.

Defense Bill Includes 170 Atlas Rockets

House, Senate Unit Okays $39.2 Billion In Compromise Act

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $39,228,239,000-compromise defense appropriations bill includes funds to build at least 170 Atlas missiles, informed sources say.

The big Atlas is designed to carry nuclear destruction across oceans.

Cost and quantity figures on the Atlas are secrets. Information on the number planned came from congressional sources familiar with details of the appropriation bill.

The defense measure worked out Friday by Senate and House conferees still needs approval by the Senate and House. The House probably will consider it on Tuesday.

Although the bill totaled 20 million dollars less than President Eisenhower had asked, the conference committee offset this by boosting the amount of money that the Pentagon could use from funds authorized in the past. In this category, it gave the Pentagon 90 million dollars more than the President had sought.

In other sections of the compromise bill, the conferees agreed:

1. To order an increase in National Guard manpower.

2. To pay for—but not order—an increase in Army reserve and Marine manpower.

3. To cut appropriations for the Navy, Marines, Air Force and secretary of defense but boost them for the Army.

4. To provide 35 million dollars to start work on another nuclear-powered aircraft carrier.

5. To push development on other missiles besides the Atlas. Two intercontinental ballistic missiles—the Titan and the Minuteman—and the Nike-Zeus, a defense missile, will benefit.

2 Criminals, Mental Case Flee Prison

HOWARD, R.I. (AP) — Two tough criminals and a violent mental patient today scaled the wall at State Prison, forced a guard to drive them to Providence and then escaped in a waiting auto.

Authorities identified the prisoners as Gennaro D'Amico, 38, serving 20 years for attempting to kill a policeman, and Edward J. Andrews, 28, serving life for the rape-killing of an 88-year-old schoolteacher.

The third escaper was identified as Robert Hashberger, 19, who had been transferred to the prison hospital from the state mental institution because of tendencies toward violence.

The trio captured guard Roger Remillard, 23, at the point of a screwdriver after they leaped from the 20-foot wall.

Paul D. Sherman, in charge of Rhode Island Correctional Services, said the break was planned and executed with precision.

He said all three were in cells at the prison hospital — D'Amico and Andrews for observation — when they broke out in some yet unexplained manner.

Khrushchev Would Like Trip To U.S.

Lauds American Jet Liner And Wishes To Fly One Over Here

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev inspected an American jet airliner today and said he would like to fly to the United States in "this one or some other one."

He said he would like to make such a trip "when the time is ripe—in good time."

Khrushchev made these comments to American newsmen as he inspected two jet airliners at Moscow Airport. One of them was the plush Boeing 707 which brought Vice President Richard M. Nixon to Moscow.

Khrushchev, who has been in the Ukraine, made a surprise return to the capital apparently for a further meeting with Nixon before the vice president leaves for Warsaw Sunday.

The Premier was in a jovial mood as U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson showed him through the two airliners. He pronounced the jets "very good." But he added the Soviet military version of its TU114 could make a nonstop round trip between Moscow and New York.

American jazz music was piped through the cabin of one of the airliners to create a gay atmosphere. Khrushchev proposed this toast:

"To the aircraft designers of America and all the scientists who build these wonderful planes and the pilots so skillful in bringing them to Moscow."

Holding aloft a glass of American whisky, he also toasted the U.S. government, President Eisenhower Nixon and Thompson.

On Russia Radio-TV

News 'Blackout' Of Nixon's Talk Lifted By Soviet

BULLETIN

MOSCOW (AP) — Vice President Nixon warned Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today of an "era of fear, suspicion and tension" if Russia tries to communize foreign countries.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians took a belated step today to increase the Soviet audience to which Vice President Richard M. Nixon will speak in defense of U.S. cold war policy in a TV-radio address tonight.

The Russians agreed to end a virtual news blackout on the speech by carrying a series of announcements on radio and TV telling Russians to tune in.

This was announced at a news conference by Herbert Klein, the vice president's spokesman. He said three announcements will be made over 10 TV stations that extend 300 miles outside Moscow. Further announcements were promised over a radio chain reaching the whole of the Soviet Union.

Moreover, Nixon was put on a spot that normally attracts a big audience, the 8 o'clock light humor hour.

Estimates of the number of people who may see Nixon on TV varied widely, but ranged as high as 10 million.

The big government newspaper Izvestia has made no mention of Nixon's speech. The Communist Party newspaper Pravda reported the Vice President would speak, but did not say when. The English language Moscow News mentioned the speech, but it has a circulation of only a few thousands.

The Soviets had agreed to let Nixon make an uncensored radio-TV speech in exchange for the courtesy shown First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov in his visit to the United States. Kozlov made an hour-long speech over a coast-to-coast television network from Washington which was well advertised in advance.

Nixon has been banking heavily on reaching a wide Soviet audience to give an uncensored view of Western policy to the Soviet people. They usually read and hear only what the Kremlin wants them to know.

The vice president intends to tell them directly what he considers the "real facts" responsible for international tension and answer hecklers of U.S. foreign policy.

Nixon is flying to Warsaw Sunday for a three-day good will visit to Poland.

Ike's Move Is Expected In Few Days

West Summit Talks Before Khrushchev's Trip Here Discussed

GENEVA (AP) — The United States has sounded out Allied governments on their reaction to a possible invitation from President Eisenhower to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit the United States, top Western diplomats reported today.

These informants said the feasibility of a Western summit meeting in advance of the prospective Eisenhower-Khrushchev talk has been discussed.

This development was announced as the Big Four foreign ministers conference neared the windup with negotiations on the Berlin crisis stalled and hope for East-West agreement virtually abandoned.

In diplomatic quarters here the impression prevailed today that an invitation from Eisenhower to Khrushchev would be announced within the next few days.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who has been touring Russia, is scheduled to leave Moscow Sunday for Warsaw.

At Moscow Airport today Khrushchev inspected the jet airliners which took Nixon and a company of newsmen to the Soviet capital and said he would like to fly to the United States in one of those planes "or some other one."

U.S. Secretary of State Christian Herter's office maintained silence on Khrushchev speculation today. All inquiries were referred to the White House.

Within the framework of the stalled Big Four conference on the Berlin crisis an Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting is regarded here as an alternative to an early summit conference, one which might help in the long run to pave the way to a summit conference toward the end of this year or sometime next year.

The one big, unanswered question of the nine-week-old conference itself is whether it will adjourn Wednesday amid charges aimed at fixing the blame for failing to reach agreement or whether it will break off with an agreement for the ministers to meet again later in the year.

This subject could be tackled at a luncheon meeting today between Herter and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at the latter's villa. On a similar occasion a few days ago, Herter told Gromyko he has to leave Geneva Thursday and proposed the conference be concluded by Wednesday. A U.S. spokesman said Gromyko agreed.

Since then, Radio Moscow has broadcast a Soviet news agency dispatch from Geneva saying there was no agreement to end negotiations Wednesday and that the Soviet Union favored continuing the talks until there is an accord on Berlin.

3 Ohioans Killed In West Virginia

BECKLEY, W.Va. (AP) — Five persons were killed early today in a head-on collision of two cars on the West Virginia turnpike, about 15 miles north of here. Five others were hospitalized.

State Police Lt. R. G. Coen said the accident had occurred at Milepost 53 near the Mossy Interchange.

Involved in the wreck were six soldiers from Fort Bragg, N.C. in one car and four persons from Troy, Ohio, in the other.

Coen said two of the soldiers were killed and four injured, three critically. Three occupants in the Ohio car were killed and one was injured.

"One car was on the wrong side of the road," he said, "but the two cars were so demolished that it was impossible to tell which was."

The accident happened about 2:30 a. m.

Those in the Ohio car killed were:

No Progress Reported In Steel Walkout

Industry And Union Peace Negotiations Recess Until Monday

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiations between the steel industry and the United Steelworkers have recessed for the weekend without any indication of progress toward ending a strike which started July 15.

Joseph F. Finnegan, national mediator, met for more than two hours Friday with union officials. The meeting was described simply as exploratory.

Industry representatives said they were returning to Pittsburgh for the weekend.

The industry scheduled a luncheon news conference for Monday.

A second joint session between union and management officials, with mediators present, was scheduled for Monday afternoon.

In other developments, possible strikes were averted in copper mines and the aluminum industry.

In aluminum, a scheduled walkout of 5,500 workers was averted just before midnight Friday, when the Aluminum Workers International Union and the Reynolds Metals Co. agreed to extend the present contract indefinitely to allow negotiations to continue.

The workers involved are employed at plants in Virginia, Alabama, Kentucky and Missouri. The contract extension was similar to others reached earlier this week which averted scheduled walkouts in most of the rest of the aluminum industry.

In copper, the steelworkers union agreed to keep working on a day-to-day basis in copper mines and refineries of Arizona and Utah. The steel union has about 2,500 members in mines and refineries.

In a separate dispute, however, about 1,000 members of the steelworkers struck a New York City copper plant of Phelps-Dodge Corp.

325 Midland Workers Out At Bliss Plant

Pittsburgh Facility Also Idle; Canton, Salem Units Operate

Some 325 steelworkers of the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. of Midland went on strike at midnight, with the expiration of their contract, Alex Bowie, United Steelworkers union international staff representative, said.

Members of Local 1269 began picketing at the same time a strike of the Bliss Co.'s Pittsburgh plant also started.

Contracts for two other Bliss plants, in Canton and Salem, will not expire until Aug. 31, he said.

Negotiations have been going on several weeks, the union said, with some sessions at the Canton headquarters and others in Pittsburgh.

The union said the company rejected a proposed master agreement for the four plants but the union turned down a request for a 30-day extension because of a lack of retroactivity clause.

A meeting was held as late as Thursday for the Mackintosh division but no settlement was reached and the strike followed. Another session will be held next Thursday, however.

Police said Martin was taken into custody at 1:20 a. m. on Route 7 south of the city after he had been chased following the report from the passing motorist.

News 'Blackout' Of Nixon's Talk Lifted By Soviet

BULLETIN

MOSCOW (AP) — Vice President Nixon warned Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev today of an "era of fear, suspicion and tension" if Russia tries to communize foreign countries.

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians took a belated step today to increase the Soviet audience to which Vice President Richard M. Nixon will speak in defense of U.S. cold war policy in a TV-radio address tonight.

The Russians agreed to end a virtual news blackout on the speech by carrying a series of announcements on radio and TV telling Russians to tune in.

This was announced at a news conference by Herbert Klein, the vice president's spokesman. He said three announcements will be made over 10 TV stations that extend 300 miles outside Moscow. Further announcements were promised over a radio chain reaching the whole of the Soviet Union.

Moreover, Nixon was put on a spot that normally attracts a big audience, the 8 o'clock light humor hour.

Estimates of the number of people who may see Nixon on TV varied widely, but ranged as high as 10 million.

The big government newspaper Izvestia has made no mention of Nixon's speech. The Communist Party newspaper Pravda reported the Vice President would speak, but did not say when. The English language Moscow News mentioned the speech, but it has a circulation of only a few thousands.

The Soviets had agreed to let Nixon make an uncensored radio-TV speech in exchange for the courtesy shown First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov in his visit to the United States. Kozlov made an hour-long speech over a coast-to-coast television network from Washington which was well advertised in advance.

Nixon has been banking heavily on reaching a wide Soviet audience to give an uncensored view of Western policy to the Soviet people. They usually read and hear only what the Kremlin wants them to know.

The vice president intends to tell them directly what he considers the "real facts" responsible for international tension and answer hecklers of U.S. foreign policy.

Nixon is flying to Warsaw Sunday for a three-day good will visit to Poland.

No Progress Reported In Steel Walkout

Industry And Union Peace Negotiations Recess Until Monday

NEW YORK (AP)—Negotiations between the steel industry and the United Steelworkers have recessed for the weekend without any indication of progress toward ending a strike which started July 15.

Joseph F. Finnegan, national mediator, met for more than two hours Friday with union officials. The meeting was described simply as exploratory.

Industry representatives said they were returning to Pittsburgh for the weekend.

The industry scheduled a luncheon news conference for Monday.

A second joint session between union and management officials, with mediators present, was scheduled for Monday afternoon.

In other developments, possible strikes were averted in copper mines and the aluminum industry.

In aluminum, a scheduled walkout of 5,500 workers was averted just before midnight Friday, when the Aluminum Workers International Union and the Reynolds Metals Co. agreed to extend the present contract indefinitely to allow negotiations to continue.

The workers involved are employed at plants in Virginia, Alabama, Kentucky and Missouri. The contract extension was similar to others reached earlier this week which averted scheduled walkouts in most of the rest of the aluminum industry.

In copper, the steelworkers union agreed to keep working on a day-to-day basis in copper mines and refineries of Arizona and Utah. The steel union has about 2,500 members in mines and refineries.

In a separate dispute, however, about 1,000 members of the steelworkers struck a New York City copper plant of Phelps-Dodge Corp.

325 Midland Workers Out At Bliss Plant

Pittsburgh Facility Also Idle; Canton, Salem Units Operate

Some 325 steelworkers of the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. of Midland went on strike at midnight, with the expiration of their contract, Alex Bowie, United Steelworkers union international staff representative, said.

Members of Local 1269 began picketing at the same time a strike of the Bliss Co.'s Pittsburgh plant also started.

Contracts for two other Bliss plants, in Canton and Salem, will not expire until Aug. 31, he said.

Negotiations have been going on several weeks, the union said, with some sessions at the Canton headquarters and others in Pittsburgh.

The union said the company rejected a proposed master agreement for the four plants but the union turned down a request for a 30-day extension because of a lack of retroactivity clause.

A meeting was held as late as Thursday for the Mackintosh division but no settlement was reached and the strike followed. Another session will be held next Thursday, however.

Sunny, Cool Weather Slated For Weekend

Sunny and cool weather arrived today and the Ohio weatherman said the comfortable temperatures should continue over the weekend. Sunday will be sunny with little change in temperature.

The hot and humid spell appears at end with a high of 78 to 82 forecast for today and a low of 55 to 60 tonight.

Dam 8 said the mercury climbed to 89 Friday afternoon before the cool front moved in and the overnight low was only 64 degrees.

Ike's Move Is Expected In Few Days

West Summit Talks Before Khrushchev's Trip Here Discussed

GENEVA (AP) — The United States has sounded out Allied governments on their reaction to a possible invitation from President Eisenhower to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to visit the United States, top Western diplomats reported today.

These informants said the feasibility of a Western summit meeting in advance of the prospective Eisenhower-Khrushchev talk has been discussed.

This development was announced as the Big Four foreign ministers conference neared the windup with negotiations on the Berlin crisis stalled and hope for East-West agreement virtually abandoned.

In diplomatic quarters here the impression prevailed today that an invitation from Eisenhower to Khrushchev would be announced within the next few days.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who has been touring Russia, is scheduled to leave Moscow Sunday for Warsaw.

At Moscow Airport today Khrushchev inspected the jet airliners which took Nixon and a company of newsmen to the Soviet capital and said he would like to fly to the United States in one of those planes "or some other one."

U.S. Secretary of State Christian Herter's office maintained silence on Khrushchev speculation today. All inquiries were referred to the White House.

Within the framework of the stalled Big Four conference on the Berlin crisis an Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting is regarded here as an alternative to an early summit conference, one which might help in the long run to pave the way to a summit conference toward the end of this year or sometime next year.

The one big, unanswered question of the nine-week-old conference itself is whether it will adjourn Wednesday amid charges aimed at fixing the blame for failing to reach agreement or whether it will break off with an agreement for the ministers to meet again later in the year.

This subject could be tackled at a luncheon meeting today between Herter and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko at the latter's villa. On a similar occasion a few days ago, Herter told Gromyko he has to leave Geneva Thursday and proposed the conference be concluded by Wednesday. A U.S. spokesman said Gromyko agreed.

Since then, Radio Moscow has broadcast a Soviet news agency dispatch from Geneva saying there was no agreement to end negotiations Wednesday and that the Soviet Union favored continuing the talks until there is an accord on Berlin.

Man Nabbed In Chase After Beating Woman

Wellsville police apprehended a Wheeling man in an early morning chase today after a motorist reported seeing him beating a woman.

Charges of assault and battery, driving while drunk and driving without a license face John Martin, awaiting a hearing later today before Mayor William Shoub.

Police said Martin was taken into custody at 1:20 a. m. on Route 7 south of the city after he had been chased following the report from the passing motorist.

The woman in the car with him—Catherine Roth—told police she had been beaten, and filed the assault and battery complaint against him.

Progress In Dental Practice And Materials Told Lions Club

Dentistry is just as up-to-date as modern living with new procedures constantly changing the patient's image of a dental office, Dr. Myer Alpern told the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Because of the increasing life span, people regard their teeth as more important and dentistry is keeping pace by developing new techniques and materials, the dentist said.

The dental techniques and dental offices have undergone a sharp change from old days when dentistry was very painful and offices were dark and gloomy, Dr. Alpern pointed out.

High-speed drills over 100 times as fast as former equipment has eased the pain of drilling and, new anesthetics have made it almost painless. Fillings also have changed and silver still is the most popular but plastic fillings are being used in increasing amounts.

Hypnosis has been used "very successfully" in some cases, particularly for those who are extremely nervous. The chief drawback, however, is the long induction period, the dentist continued.

Replacement of teeth with dentures immediately now is an established practice so that patients no longer are required to go without teeth for a long period.

But the chief objective now is to save teeth, discarding the old idea of pulling teeth as a cure-all for other ailments.

Experiments are under way on tooth implantation, he said, predicting that some day "tooth banks" will be used to supply teeth in the same fashion that other parts of the body are being transplanted.

Despite the advances, however, tooth decay still is the most prevalent disease in the world, outranking all of the well-known "killers," Dr. Alpern said.

Although decay is prevalent, more teeth go bad because of pyorrhea than from cavities, he said.

He was introduced by Paul Zehnder, program chairman. Victor Smith, president, presided.

James Johnston, picnic chairman, reminded members to make reservations for the annual affair Aug. 26 at the lower pavilion in in Thompson Park. The deadline for securing tickets from Jack Kelly, reservation chairman, is Aug. 21, he said.

Long Distance Phone Rates To Be Slashed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Phone rates will be cut 47 million dollars annually starting the middle of next month. It will save some long distance callers 5 to 25 cents on a three-minute call.

American Telephone & Telegraph Co. has notified the Federal Communications Commission that the cuts will affect only interstate station-to-station calls of more than 468 miles.

The charge for a daytime call between Washington and San Francisco, for example, will drop from $2.50 to $2.25 for the first three minutes. Each additional minute will cost 60 cents instead of 65.

Last week the FCC ordered a 50-million dollar cut in phone rates. AT&T, while notifying the commission of the mid-September cut, said an additional annual reduction of three million dollars would be made when it can work out necessary details.

Ex-Convict, 24, Jailed On Charge Of White Slavery

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A 24-year-old ex-convict was in jail today on charges that he ran a white slavery racket.

Allegheny County Dist. Atty. Edward Boyle told a news conference Friday that Nicholas Silia Jr., a native of Cleveland, Ohio, lured girls and women under the guise of an escort service, then forced them at gunpoint to submit to clients.

Boyle said Silia was arrested in his home by FBI agents and county police Thursday night. Silia denied forcing his employes into sexual acts with customers. He also denied ever seeing a German Luger which police say was taken from his briefcase by arresting officers.

Dectectives also arrested William E. Thompson, 25, of suburban Pittsburgh, on charges of adultry and contributing to the delinquency of a minor because of his alleged association with one of the girls.

Silia said he employed 31 women, ranging in age from 18 to 38, and seven men who acted as contacts.

Silia was held for court without bail on a formal charge of rape while Thompson, who officers said was not an operator of the vice ring, posted $5,000 bond.

Ike's Expected To Nominate Wheeling Attorney As Judge

WASHINGTON — The U. S. Senate is expected to receive next week the name of Charles F. Paul of Wheeling, W. Va., whom President Eisenhower intends to nominate for federal judge of the Northern District Court of West Virginia.

Paul is a Wheeling native and senior partner in the law firm of Paul, Phillips and Holden. He was graduated from West Virginia University and obtained his law degree from Harvard.

Judge Herbert S. Boreman was promoted from the northern federal court position June 17 to the U. S. Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Paul, 57, has been an attorney since 1926.

The procedure for filling a vacancy is for the President to pass on a recommended candidate and then send his name to the Senate for confirmation.

State Tax Commissioner John A. Field Jr. has been nominated by the President for West Virginia's Southern District Court post that has been vacant since the death of Judge Ben Moore. The Senate has not voted on Field.

Judge Harry Watkins serves both the Northern and Southern districts of West Virginia. There are three federal judgeships in West Virginia.

Paul and two other men were named July 12 by Rep. Arch A. Moore Jr. R-WVa as candidates for Boreman's post remaining from an original list of 12.

Moore said he nominated Paul and Albert M. Morgan, a U. S. district attorney at Morgantown. He said that Gov. Underwood offered the name of Rupert A. Sinsel of Clarksburg.

Two File Appeals In Murder Case

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio Supreme Court has received the appeal of two Cleveland men from their joint conviction for first degree murder.

Paul Perrotti and Alfred A. Calabrese were sentenced last November to life imprisonment for the fatal shooting of Eldon Shoup during an Alliance robbery, Feb. 7, 1957. They appealed Friday.

Shoup was the son of a caretaker at the home of Frank Wells, holder of a federal gambling stamp.

Paul F. Carpenter, self-confessed triggerman, and Arthur Lariche were indicted for murder with Perrotti and Calabrese.

The four pleaded innocent, but counsel for Carpenter later reserved the right to plead guilty by reason of insanity. With Raymond Paone, the four also were indicted on charges of robbing the Wells home. A basement safe reportedly contained $6,000.

Carpenter has not been brought to trial. He pleaded guilty to a charge of burglarizing an Akron bar in 1956, before his arrest in the Alliance shooting.

Records show that Paone has not been tried on the burglary count. Lariche pleaded guilty to first degree manslaughter in the murder and guilty to the burglary charge.

MEADVILLE, Pa. (AP)—A 96-year-old Cleveland woman died in City Hospital Friday after being injured in a one-car crash.

McGovern Must Wait Until Jan. 1 To Take PUC Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Rep. Frances McGovern (D-Summit) must wait until Jan. 1 to accept an appointment with the Public Utilities Commission.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, who made the appointment Wednesday, was informed by legal assistant Rankin Gibson Friday that a constitutional provision prohibits Miss McGovern from accepting the position.

Miss McGovern was a member of the 1957 Legislature that hiked commission members' pay from $10,000 to $16,000 a year. The constitution prevents accepting such an appointment for one year after the end of an appointee's term in the Legislature which voted the pay raise.

The four pleaded innocent, but counsel for Carpenter later reserved the right to plead guilty by reason of insanity. With Raymond Paone, the four also were indicted on charges of robbing the Wells home. A basement safe reportedly contained $6,000.

Carpenter has not been brought to trial. He pleaded guilty to a charge of burglarizing an Akron bar in 1956, before his arrest in the Alliance shooting.

Records show that Paone has not been tried on the burglary count. Lariche pleaded guilty to first degree manslaughter in the murder and guilty to the burglary charge.

McGovern Must Wait Until Jan. 1 To Take PUC Job

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Rep. Frances McGovern (D-Summit) must wait until Jan. 1 to accept an appointment with the Public Utilities Commission.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, who made the appointment Wednesday, was informed by legal assistant Rankin Gibson Friday that a constitutional provision prohibits Miss McGovern from accepting the position.

Miss McGovern was a member of the 1957 Legislature that hiked commission members' pay from $10,000 to $16,000 a year. The constitution prevents accepting such an appointment for one year after the end of an appointee's term in the Legislature which voted the pay raise.

Steel

field—the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers—has scheduled a meeting in Denver, Colo., Tuesday to consider fixing a strike day.

The strike of 500,000 steelworkers has idled another 85,000 workers in related industries.

The steel industry, proposing a one-year freeze on wage raises, has offered to raise pension and welfare benefits this year. It also has offered to give a modest pay boost next year if the USW would agree to compensating economies in operations through changes in plant work rules.

The USW has termed the latter proposal an attempt to make it a company-dominated union. The union seeks a 15-cent hourly wage hike plus fringe benefits. It contends the wage boost could be paid out of company profits without an inflation-producing raise in steel prices.

Prestrike wages in basic steel averaged $3.10 an hour.

Strike

Local 1269's negotiating committee include: Bowie, staff representative; George Van Kirk, president; Emeric Davis, vice president; John Maola, recording secretary; and Clifford Cochran, financial secretary.

Four other small steel producing and fabricating plants in Western Pennsylvania were closed at midnight with the expiration of contracts.

The walkout of some 3,000 steelworkers also shut the Heppenstall Co., New Brighton; Pittsburgh Screw & Bolt Co., Monaca; Superior Drawn Steel Co., Monaca, and Hydrill Co., North Rochester.

An estimated 3,400 other steelworkers were idled at the Babcock & Wilcox Co. yesterday after the union declined to extend the old contract further.

Steel

field—the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers—has scheduled a meeting in Denver, Colo., Tuesday to consider fixing a strike day.

The strike of 500,000 steelworkers has idled another 85,000 workers in related industries.

The steel industry, proposing a one-year freeze on wage raises, has offered to raise pension and welfare benefits this year. It also has offered to give a modest pay boost next year if the USW would agree to compensating economies in operations through changes in plant work rules.

The USW has termed the latter proposal an attempt to make it a company-dominated union. The union seeks a 15-cent hourly wage hike plus fringe benefits. It contends the wage boost could be paid out of company profits without an inflation-producing raise in steel prices.

Prestrike wages in basic steel averaged $3.10 an hour.

Local 1269's negotiating committee include: Bowie, staff representative; George Van Kirk, president; Emeric Davis, vice president; John Maola, recording secretary; and Clifford Cochran, financial secretary.

Four other small steel producing and fabricating plants in Western Pennsylvania were closed at midnight with the expiration of contracts.

The walkout of some 3,000 steelworkers also shut the Heppenstall Co., New Brighton; Pittsburgh Screw & Bolt Co., Monaca; Superior Drawn Steel Co., Monaca, and Hydrill Co., North Rochester.

An estimated 3,400 other steelworkers were idled at the Babcock & Wilcox Co. yesterday after the union declined to extend the old contract further.

'New Look' On Utilities Commission

The "new look" of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio indicates that Gov. DiSalle may accomplish through appointments what he could not get through the 103rd General Assembly: A revision of the formula on which utility rates are based.

Democrat Edward J. Kenealy, named to a new six-year term and designated chairman, long has been an outspoken foe of "reconstruction cost new less depreciation," the present law's basis for setting rates. He has fought the so-called RCN formula both as utilities director for the city of Cleveland and as a member of the commission.

Democrat Frances McGovern of Akron, appointed to serve out the remaining 18 months of Kenealy's old term, was a sponsor and chief spokesman for the bill introduced in the past session of the Legislature to change the formula.

Relegated to the minority position on the commission is Everett H. Krueger Jr., a Republican who had served as chairman for the last two years and had taken a more moderate view of the need for a change.

Thus for the first time advocates of a shift in the factors used to determine whether a utility should be granted a rate increase will be in the majority on the commission.

THIS IS NOT to say that the shift will come quickly or that it will be drastic. The rigidity which RCN's opponents claim is imposed by the present law is the result of years of court decisions. That cannot be changed overnight by so ponderous a process as the commission's consideration of requests for increases.

Fortunately, there is little evidence that quick and drastic changes are desired by the members of the new commission or by the governor.

Miss McGovern has won considerable respect from members of both parties in the Legislature for her intelligence, fair play and open-mindedness as a state representative.

Mr. Krueger, an erudite attorney who also commands respect from those who have worked with him, said on a number of occasions during the legislative hassle that while he does not view RCN as the bogeyman its opponents do, he believes rates could be set more fairly in many instances if the commission were granted more flexibility within the "guide-posts" set by the utility rate law.

Mr. Kenealy, once decidedly vehement in his attacks on the present statute, has confessed that he mellowed after he left Cleveland's payroll and took a mediator's role.

Finally, Gov. DiSalle himself is on record as favoring temperance in tampering with the law that has given Ohioans some of the best utility service at some of the lowest rates in the nation.

DESPITE THE FACT a change in the RCN formula was a part of his party's platform, he proceeded cautiously in the early days of his term.

He sought the advice of friends in financial circles on the possible effect of a revision on the utilities' willingness to expand service in Ohio and on the attraction of risk capital. He conferred with both opponents and supporters of the present law.

Then he was responsible for amending Miss McGovern's bill to provide that instead of abandoning RCN and replacing it with "net investment, the commission should give equal consideration to both.

The process of setting utility rates is so complex that even the best informed of Ohioans do not even try to understand it.

They can judge only by the service they get for the price they pay and they feel that so far the record has been good.

Their hope, then, is that the evidence of moderation and reasonableness displayed in the past by Gov. DiSalle and his "new look" commission will be borne out by future rate decisions.

Vote Getter Vs. Tax Collector

Vote getters in Congress have prevailed over the tax collectors again. A majority of the House Ways and Means Committee would rather issue a billion dollars' worth of federal bonds to build roads then collect enough additional taxes on automobile users to keep federal highway aid on a cash basis.

If you are a motorist who squawks against paying his own way — if you are a citizen who likes to make progress on the cuff but not on the barrelhead — you are lined up with the vote getters. Neither you nor they can face reality. It's easier to put the cost on the cuff than the cash on the barrelhead.

The Eisenhower administration, which invented the multi-billion-dollar federal highway program, started out with the idea of putting the cost on the cuff and was converted to the sounder idea of making motorists pay as they drove. This was a significant switch from the federal government's bad habit of going into debt for anything and everything — a habit that now costs taxpayers more than eight billion dollars a year in interest, for which they get nothing.

Nevertheless, this year when it became clear that another increase of a cent and a half in gas taxes and increases in other excise taxes against auto users would be needed to keep the federal program on a cash basis, vote-getting carried the day in the House Ways and Means Committee against tax-collecting.

Not only did the committee balk at the pay-as-you-go principle, but it shied away from its commitment to keep faith with the cooperating states by following through on schedule. If the decision is sustained, the federal highway program will turn into another mish-mash of political wrong-headedness.

If you are one of many who give aid and comfort to public officials who would rather go into debt than pay cash, lest voters get sore about paying the price of progress, the Ways and Means Committee majority voted in your favor.

But if you are one of a growing number who would rather pay cash and get a dollar's worth of progress for every dollar invested, you owe it to your congressman and your senators to ask for a pay-as-you-go federal highway program.

Last Call For Postponed Items

A school child thinks of August as a last chance to taste the sweetness of the ignorance that is bliss. A school teacher feels the same way.

August is the last call for postponed items before the seasonal train pulls out; most of us have that feeling about it. Whatever has not been done since Memorial Day that was on the summer schedule had better be done before Labor Day, or it never will be done at all.

If there are side roads that should have been explored, now is the time to see what lies at their unknown endings. If there are excursions to be taken, pack the baskets and unfold the maps now, before the days shorten.

Even if the deferred item is nothing more consequential that watching a sunrise or a sunset, August is the last chance of a summertime to do it properly.

This is the last chance for hammocks, afterdinner golf, sunbathing and straw hats. It is the final time around for lemonade, swimming parties and cook-outs. Now, if ever, tonsils must come out and teeth must be filled. Roasting ears must be eaten and amusement parks and beaches visited.

Roofs must be repaired and paint spread on. The good old summertime is turning into the stretch. Days are shortening and nights lengthening. The dew is getting heavier and the unexpended balance of time is getting lighter.

It's August. Next comes September, and if the Katydids are right there will be frost before the end of September.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Third baseball league formation leaves one big question unanswered: Are there enough beers, cigarettes and cereals to support telecasts? There was one grand thing about the announcement. It put Castro, Hoffa, Miss Universe, Nixon and Khrushchev out of headlines for a few hours.

The league will be called the Continental, says the committee. Wanna bet? Name is too long. Sounds more like a new insurance company or auto tire. Boys will have to make it snappier and New York must have club name as colorful as "Giants" and "Bums."

Considering territory to be covered, the Vikings or Ramblers, Marauders or Gypsies might do.

A THIRD LEAGUE will mean more late suppers, cafe arguments and commercials than ever and can make the living rooms of America more combative than at any time in history. If mother wants to tune into a soap opera, quiz show or cooking hour, she will have extra tough going.

Twenty-four to 26 ball clubs telling the public what to eat, drink and smoke can be hard to take. New league will take in New York, Houston, Denver, Toronto, Minneapolis and St. Paul, with Miami, Buffalo, San Diego and Puerto Rico club other possibilities.

Plenty of color seems certain and we can see Miami using bathing beauties as bat boys, substituting stone crabs for frankfurters and awarding waterfront lots to pitchers of no hitters.

With Canada in the league we may get a mounted police touch featuring a pitcher who "always gets his man."

Kefauver is conducting an inquiry into big league situation. If it's to be fair to all three leagues this probe calls for a three-headed chairman.

JACQUELINE HART saw five movies in a single afternoon in Chicago. "Holiday for Lovers" and "Middle of the Night" and "Last Train For Gun Hill"? Our own "private eye" says solution to case is simple: Fact she fled to Chicago to see so many movies proves her home-town theaters must have been showing re-runs.

"Share My Lettuce" is the name of a summer revue. Makes a big hit with the "calorie gods," so to speak.

Some U.S. senators hit compulsory cellar shelters from atomic bombs. "The American people do not like compulsory programs," says one. If they knew anything about such attacks, they wouldn't mind.

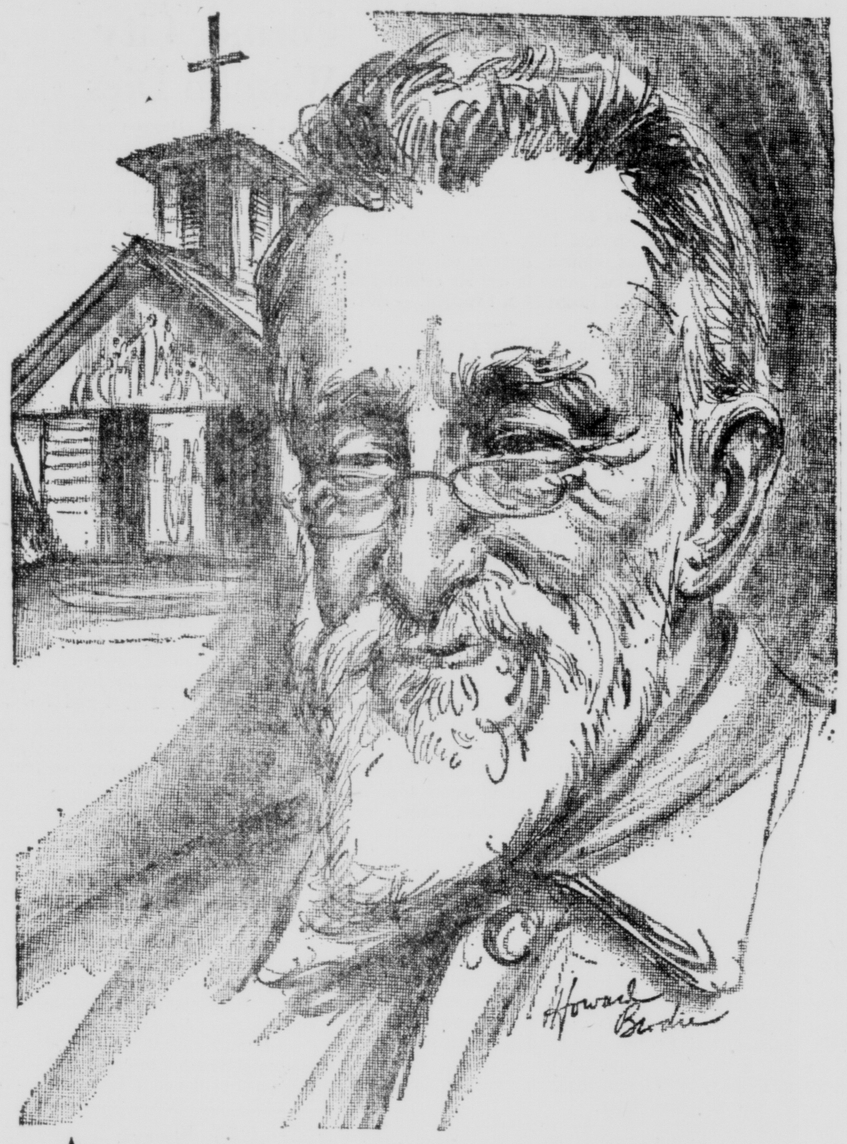

"Rock 'n' Roll Singer Shot" — headline. We never dreamt one could stand still long enough. . .

Herbert Hoover will be guest at baseball old - timers show. You remember Herb, he pitched that great game for Belgium in World War I and did such a rugged catching against the Roosevelt beanball in depression.

U.S. will be lucky if there is no Rickover-Soviet crisis. Soviet visitors to the U.S. fair criticize calling kitchenettes and bathrooms "rooms" in new home. Russia doesn't do this, they say. They're close to being right for once. The bathroom and kitchen are as much a part of a home as wheels on an auto and it seems a "come on" to say a house has seven rooms because the bathroom and kitchen are part of it.

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

A church was built in Stowe, Vt., 10 years ago in memory of a layman known affectionately as Brother Joseph Dutton. People of many faiths come to the Catholic Church of the Blessed Sacrament to pray or find inspiration in his life:

Joseph Dutton left Stowe in 1861 to enlist in the Union Army. He was a courageous soldier. Yet, after the Civil War he became a drunkard for 10 years. He conquered the habit and found faith. Regretting his wasted years, he determined to serve God. He learned of Father Damien's service to lepers on the Hawaiian island of Molokai. Joseph went to the leper colony and remained on the island over 40 years until his death there at 87. He was carpenter, mason and gardener; he dressed sores and performed surgery. He worked hard, arose early, sometimes didn't go to bed at all. At 84, he wrote, "The clock now strikes 4 A.M. and not one-quarter of what I hope to do is done." He took no money for his work and gave away all he had. He became head of the colony and watched it grow into one of the finest in the world.

When 16 U.S. Navy ships steamed by Molokai in 1908, they dipped their flags in salute to the veteran on orders of President Theodore Roosevelt.

"I was firm in at least one resolve," wrote Brother Dutton, ". . . to do what I could to help my neighbor in every way. It has been my hope never to falter in this . . ."

Terrorist Crews In Remote Places

By Victor Riesel

ZANZIBAR

There was a long blade in the sash of the filthy "skirt" of the bare chested captain of the dhow. There was as much ugliness on the faces of his six man crew as there was dirt on his shallow keeled sailing smuggling craft — and as much hatred for Americans. The Arab had us on a lonely dock. We had come to see what smuggling craft were like. We saw. We were jeered at and insulted.

Victor Riesel

Our driver, Mr. R. S. Mkumbi, got us out and we headed for Zanzibar town. From that ugly captain of the dhow on that Indian Ocean dock to Harry Bridges on the San Francisco waterfront may be a long and somewhat indirect line but hold on and I'll trace it for you.

Active on these waterfronts halfway across the world, in Dar Es Salaam and Zanzibar and Mombasa, is the apparatus of the Moscow-directed World Federation of Trade Unions.

IT HAS INFILTRATED something called the International Confederation of Arab Unions — and our intelligence people in Washington can prove that the WFTU has very detailed plans for capturing East African labor. This would put Moscow's Communist Party Central Committee in a position to cut us off from this part of the world or force our cargo ships to travel thousands of costly miles farther to reach vital bases, oil fields and mineral deposits.

So strategic, for example, is Zanzibar, that the British plan never to give up protecting it.

Britain's colonial policies call for independence of practically all its holdings except Gibraltar, Gambia, Aden — and Zanzibar.

This, of course, the Soviet Foreign Office knows as well as our State Department. So the Russian strategy is aimed at toppling these points from within. The Kremlin knows what few busy Americans know — and that is that at the base of most African national movements are new labor federations.

This is true over in Dar Es Salaam, capital of Tanganyika. There the Tanganyikan Federation of Labor is the power base of Julius Myerere's Tanganyika African National Union (TANU) which will rule that country next year.

UP IN NAIROBI, capital of Kenya, the base of power for 28-year-old Tom Mboya (who has a touch of Harry Belafonte in him) is the Kenya Federation of Labor. Mboya will some day be the African prime minister of an independent Kenya. Today these men are anti-Communist and powerful friends of the United States.

Men like these two stand between the Russians and the turning of the African continent into another China.

Therefore it is natural for the Soviets to attempt to infiltrate or to destroy the labor unions of our friends — who soon will govern 15-million people

And the headquarters of the Kremlin's drive for labor power of Africa's 100-million African workers is Khartoum, in the Sudan.

From that sub-Sahara city, Soviet agents who are specialists in the customs of each region are dispatched to communities such as Zanzibar. Here they keep close tabs on the burgeoning Zanzibar Federation of Labor and work with the underworld such as the dhow captain I mentioned for exactly the same purpose they work with the underworld in the United States — to infiltrate unions by buying muscle for terror.

It was on May 3, 1956, that the Sudanese Communist party was launched with much of its power base in the Sudan Workers Trade Union Federation.

LEADER OF THE SOVIET operation was Shafi Ahmad ash-Shaykh, who took the orders direct from the Soviet's world labor chiefs running the WFTU. He was so trusted by Moscow that he was made "account executive" in charge of African labor for the Kremlin. Moscow made him a vice president of the anti-United States World Federation of Trade Unions. Last Dec. 3 the Sudanese government jailed him.

On April 6 Moscow named a new African labor chief — Ibrahim Zacharia, also of the Sudan. He was made a secretary of the WFTU, working under the chairman, Agostino Novella, Moscow's global labor chief.

Novella's own headquarters, the powerful Communist Italian Federation of Labor, is in Rome. It was comrade Novella who drove out to Ciampini Airport there to greet Harry Bridges last winter.

It was Novella who saw that Harry Bridges was comfortable in Rome. It was Novella who took Harry Bridges to the Communist labor headquarter for a long, long briefing. He wanted Harry Bridges to be informed.

I thought you might like to be briefed, too, about a corner of the world so few people peer into.

Letter To Editor

I firmly believe that the residents of Wellsville should obtain copies of proposed ordinance 1818—providing for building permits — which is now before Council. After reading them thoroughly, they will realize just what can come to pass under this ordinance.

Please note Sec. 13 (C). A person works hard to obtain his home and property. If he violates any of these laws, on his own property, he is subject to a fine or imprisonment or both.

Paying for a permit is only the beginning. After a permit is obtained and work has begun, various inspectors can come in during the process. By the time a person has finished building or making improvements on his home and property, he had paid quite a bit for inspection.

Under this ordinance a person may be guilty of a violation without knowing it. It can be changed at any time by a notice on the City Hall bulletin board or by a small notice in the legal section of the newspaper which many residents may not even notice.

Residents of Wellsville, please read this ordinance and pay special attention to the terms and amendments. The ordinance states the word "shall" repeatedly. The word "shall" means mandatory.

After reading ordinance 1818 thoroughly, ask yourselves, "Do we as free citizens want these regulations imposed upon us?"

Price, Wage Controls?

Steel Union Overlooks Economy Threat

Do the American people want a regulated economy — with the government fixing wages and prices? David J. McDonald, head of the Steelworkers Union, unwittingly comes close to saying, "yes," This would be one step removed from Socialism. He declares that the government

David Lawrence

"cannot help but get involved" in the steel strike and adds: "We have always welcomed the involvement of government."

As for the steel companies, they recognize the possibility, too, but are vehemently opposed to it, believing that free enterprise thrives under a free system of bargaining. Roger M. Blough, chairman of the board of U. S. Steel Corp., has just announced:

"Whatever the length of the strike and whatever the eventual outcome of the negotiations — as long as they are voluntary — we in United States Steel do not intend to raise the general level of our steel prices in the foreseeable future."

Mr. Blough said also that his company intended to adhere to that pledge "in the absence of an involuntary settlement mandated by some public body or authority."

This, of course, refers to government pressure or mandate of law.

Naturally, labor union leaders in the past have counted on their political influence in government to give them what they want. They are counting today on help from members of Congress to bring pressure on the White House to intervene and force a settlement of the steel strike in their favor.

THE PROMISE by the steel industry not to raise prices is a wise move. It doesn't mean the door is closed to any wage increase. It means, conversely, that whatever wage rise is given can be absorbed without a price increase.

It means, of course, that the industry wants the working rules in existing contracts revised to make savings and accomplish greater efficiency.

Much has been said by the union spokesmen in the last few days about the size of the profits which steel companies now are revealed to have earned in the first six months of this year. The argument from the union side is that wages can be increased because of such profits. But this is exactly how inflationary spirals begin. The erroneous assumption is that a rate of profits continues indefinitely.

Unfortunately for the steel companies, if they suffer a reverse, union labor will not share in the losses. Wages are almost never reduced. Profits are looked upon by the labor unions as having been earned by their members. It seems to be forgotten that the stockholders' and creditors' money, which makes possible new and remodeled plants with up-to-date equipment, is usually responsible for the increased profits. Dividends and interest are wages, too.

IN THIS INSTANCE, it was the fear of a steel strike, which became widespread more than a year ago, that gave the steel companies twice as many orders as they would normally have had for the same period. Naturally, if you do two years' business in one, profits go up for that period. But if wage rates are to be based on such an artificial situation, what is to happen when orders decline and buyers begin to cut down inventories as soon as they are assured of a steady supply after the strike is ended?

The unions contribute none of the management skill or energy, none of the sales ability, none of the technical knowledge that makes a big industrial company function successfully. Yet they demand that they be given a share of the profits over and above a just wage. They are unwilling to abolish "featherbedding" and waste but insist on a continuance of such subsidies.

If government were to control and if profits and wages were regulated by public authority, there soon would be no right to strike. Certainly the opportunities of a big union, through a strike threat or work stoppage, to extort a portion of the profits without assuming any responsibility for the sales or the earnings would be done away with if the government took over.

Unquestionably everybody is better off under a free bargaining system provided organized greed can be suppressed by self-restraint.

There is, to be sure, no justification for anybody on either side to take a narrow view of the steel controversy. It isn't simply a matter of profits or wage rates within a single industry.

Steel is the bellwether of the entire economy. If steel wages go up, wages in other industries will also go up. Then the price of the things the steel companies buy will go up, too, and costs are thus pyramided.

The whole nation will be affected by the kind of settlement reached in the steel strike.

If government intervenes to force a settlement favorable to the unions and unfavorable to the wage - price structure of the nation, the administration or party which brings about such a result will have to take full responsibility for another cycle of inflation.

Nixon's Test Of Poland

By Jay G. Hayden

In historical retrospect the most fateful circumstance in Vice President Nixon's current tour may be the belated Soviet refusal of his request to fly home by way of Siberia and the new state of Alaska.

It was Moscow's veto of this route which was given as the excuse for the surprise visit by the Nixon party to Poland for two days, beginning Aug. 3. Nixon will be the first American official of such high rank ever to visit a Russian satellite.

A visit to Poland by the vice president of the United States under any condition would be greatly important and in this case there are the elements of surprise and casualness which are sure to intensify Polish popular interest.

THE EVENT is usually significant in two other ways.

First, Khrushchev violently attacked Nixon because of U.S. official observance of "Captive Nations Week." As one of the Captives, Poland's reaction will be watched with interest.

Second, it was officially revealed at Bonn, after the Nixon trip to Poland was announced, that the West German Cabinet is considering the possibility of signing nonaggression pacts both with Poland and Czechoslovakia. For West Germany such an agreement presumably would include toleration of existing boundaries with those two Communist nations, at least to the extent of renouncing war as a means of reclaiming lands lost to them in World War II.

The German pronouncement clearly supplies Nixon with an important talking point. For some time past the United States has been urging the Bonn government to extend its trade relations with Poland and otherwise seek to appease the fear of German reprisal which is a continuing Polish prepossession. But Nixon scarcely would have dared to raise that subject in Warsaw except for the tip that West Germany itself is now considering it.

For two years the United States has been giving help to Poland in the form of surplus farm products and some other minor items but it has been greatly restrained in that regard by the Polish antipathy to Germany.

POLAND REMAINS a "captive" in the respect that Russian troops will camp on its soil and is entirely surrounded by Communist lands. October, 1956, Russia has been much more respectful of Polish viewpoints. It is wholly unlikely for example, that any other of the Communist satellite nations of Europe would dare invite the American vice president for a visit as Poland has done.

Under the government of Wladyslaw Gomulka, since 1956, police terrorism in Poland has all but disappeared. One of Gomulka's first acts was to release from prison the Catholic primate, Cardinal Wyszinski. Restored to his religious office, Wyszinski quickly won relatively free operation of churches of his faith. Religion in Poland still is under duress but it remains open and operating.

As was re-emphasized during Khrushchev's visit to Poland, there is little left of collectivized agriculture, which was the vogue before Gomulka took over and there has been a steady trend back toward private management and, in less degree, private ownership of industry.

SOCIALLY and intellectually, the Poles exercise a great amount of individual freedom. Poles cannot buy non-Communist publications from other countries on their newsstands but they can subscribe to them, with a fair chance that they will escape seizure by the censors. Even if seized, these outside publications somehow find their way into secondhand bookshops where anybody can buy them who has the price.

It will be interesting to compare the treatment of Nixon by the Polish population with Khrushchev's reportedly rather cool reception of him only a few days earlier.

'New Look' On Utilities Commission

The "new look" of the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio indicates that Gov. DiSalle may accomplish through appointments what he could not get through the 103rd General Assembly: A revision of the formula on which utility rates are based.

Democrat Edward J. Kenealy, named to a new six-year term and designated chairman, long has been an outspoken foe of "reconstruction cost new less depreciation," the present law's basis for setting rates. He has fought the so-called RCN formula both as utilities director for the city of Cleveland and as a member of the commission.

Democrat Frances McGovern of Akron, appointed to serve out the remaining 18 months of Kenealy's old term, was a sponsor and chief spokesman for the bill introduced in the past session of the Legislature to change the formula.

Relegated to the minority position on the commission is Everett H. Krueger Jr., a Republican who had served as chairman for the last two years and had taken a more moderate view of the need for a change.

Thus for the first time advocates of a shift in the factors used to determine whether a utility should be granted a rate increase will be in the majority on the commission.

THIS IS NOT to say that the shift will come quickly or that it will be drastic. The rigidity which RCN's opponents claim is imposed by the present law is the result of years of court decisions. That cannot be changed overnight by so ponderous a process as the commission's consideration of requests for increases.

Fortunately, there is little evidence that quick and drastic changes are desired by the members of the new commission or by the governor.

Miss McGovern has won considerable respect from members of both parties in the Legislature for her intelligence, fair play and open-mindedness as a state representative.

Mr. Krueger, an erudite attorney who also commands respect from those who have worked with him, said on a number of occasions during the legislative hassle that while he does not view RCN as the bogeyman its opponents do, he believes rates could be set more fairly in many instances if the commission were granted more flexibility within the "guide-posts" set by the utility rate law.

Mr. Kenealy, once decidedly vehement in his attacks on the present statute, has confessed that he mellowed after he left Cleveland's payroll and took a mediator's role.

Finally, Gov. DiSalle himself is on record as favoring temperance in tampering with the law that has given Ohioans some of the best utility service at some of the lowest rates in the nation.

DESPITE THE FACT a change in the RCN formula was a part of his party's platform, he proceeded cautiously in the early days of his term.

He sought the advice of friends in financial circles on the possible effect of a revision on the utilities' willingness to expand service in Ohio and on the attraction of risk capital. He conferred with both opponents and supporters of the present law.

Then he was responsible for amending Miss McGovern's bill to provide that instead of abandoning RCN and replacing it with "net investment, the commission should give equal consideration to both.

The process of setting utility rates is so complex that even the best informed of Ohioans do not even try to understand it.

They can judge only by the service they get for the price they pay and they feel that so far the record has been good.

Their hope, then, is that the evidence of moderation and reasonableness displayed in the past by Gov. DiSalle and his "new look" commission will be borne out by future rate decisions.

Vote Getter Vs. Tax Collector

Vote getters in Congress have prevailed over the tax collectors again. A majority of the House Ways and Means Committee would rather issue a billion dollars' worth of federal bonds to build roads then collect enough additional taxes on automobile users to keep federal highway aid on a cash basis.

If you are a motorist who squawks against paying his own way — if you are a citizen who likes to make progress on the cuff but not on the barrelhead — you are lined up with the vote getters. Neither you nor they can face reality. It's easier to put the cost on the cuff than the cash on the barrelhead.

The Eisenhower administration, which invented the multi-billion-dollar federal highway program, started out with the idea of putting the cost on the cuff and was converted to the sounder idea of making motorists pay as they drove. This was a significant switch from the federal government's bad habit of going into debt for anything and everything — a habit that now costs taxpayers more than eight billion dollars a year in interest, for which they get nothing.

Nevertheless, this year when it became clear that another increase of a cent and a half in gas taxes and increases in other excise taxes against auto users would be needed to keep the federal program on a cash basis, vote-getting carried the day in the House Ways and Means Committee against tax-collecting.

Not only did the committee balk at the pay-as-you-go principle, but it shied away from its commitment to keep faith with the cooperating states by following through on schedule. If the decision is sustained, the federal highway program will turn into another mish-mash of political wrong-headedness.

If you are one of many who give aid and comfort to public officials who would rather go into debt than pay cash, lest voters get sore about paying the price of progress, the Ways and Means Committee majority voted in your favor.

But if you are one of a growing number who would rather pay cash and get a dollar's worth of progress for every dollar invested you owe it to your congressman and your senators to ask for a pay-as-you-go federal highway program.

Last Call For Postponed Items

A school child thinks of August as a last chance to taste the sweetness of the ignorance that is bliss. A school teacher feels the same way.

August is the last call for postponed items before the seasonal train pulls out; most of us have that feeling about it. Whatever has not been done since Memorial Day that was on the summer schedule had better be done before Labor Day, or it never will be done at all.

If there are side roads that should have been explored, now is the time to see what lies at their unknown endings. If there are excursions to be taken, pack the baskets and unfold the maps now, before the days shorten.

Even if the deferred item is nothing more consequential that watching a sunrise or a sunset, August is the last chance of a summertime to do it properly.

This is the last chance for hammocks, after-dinner golf, sunbathing and straw hats. It is the final time around for lemonade, swimming parties and cook-outs. Now, if ever, tonsils must come out and teeth must be filled. Roasting ears must be eaten and amusement parks and beaches visited.

Roofs must be repaired and paint spread on. The good old summertime is turning into the stretch. Days are shortening and nights lengthening. The dew is getting heavier and the unexpended balance of time is getting lighter.

It's August. Next comes September, and if the Katydids are right there will be frost before the end of September.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Third baseball league formation leaves one big question unanswered: Are there enough beers, cigarettes and cereals to support telecasts? There was one grand thing about the announcement. It put Castro, Hoffa, Miss Universe, Nixon and Khrushchev out of headlines for a few hours.

The league will be called the Continental, says the committee. Wanna bet? Name is too long. Sounds more like a new insurance company or auto tire. Boys will have to make it snappier and New York must have club name as colorful as "Giants" and "Bums."

Considering territory to be covered, the Vikings or Ramblers, Marauders or Gypsies might do.

A THIRD LEAGUE will mean more late suppers, cafe arguments and commercials than ever and can make the living rooms of America more combative than at any time in history. If mother wants to tune into a soap opera, quiz show or cooking hour, she will have extra tough going.

Twenty-four to 26 ball clubs telling the public what to eat, drink and smoke can be hard to take. New league will take in New York, Houston, Denver, Toronto, Minneapolis and St. Paul, with Miami, Buffalo, San Diego and Puerto Rico club other possibilities.

Plenty of color seems certain and we can see Miami using bathing beauties as bat boys, substituting stone crabs for frankfurters and awarding waterfront lots to pitchers of no hitters.

With Canada in the league we may get a mounted police touch featuring a pitcher who "always gets his man."

Kefauver is conducting an inquiry into big league situation. If it's to be fair to all three leagues this probe calls for a three-headed chairman.

JACQUELINE HART saw five movies in a single afternoon in Chicago. "Holiday for Lovers" and "Middle of the Night" and "Last Train For Gun Hill"? Our own "private eye" says solution to case is simple: Fact she fled to Chicago to see so many movies proves her home-town theaters must have been showing re-runs.

"Share My Lettuce" is the name of a summer revue. Makes a big hit with the "calorie gods," so to speak.

Some U.S. senators hit compulsory cellar shelters from atomic bombs. "The American people do not like compulsory programs," says one. If they knew anything about such attacks, they wouldn't mind.

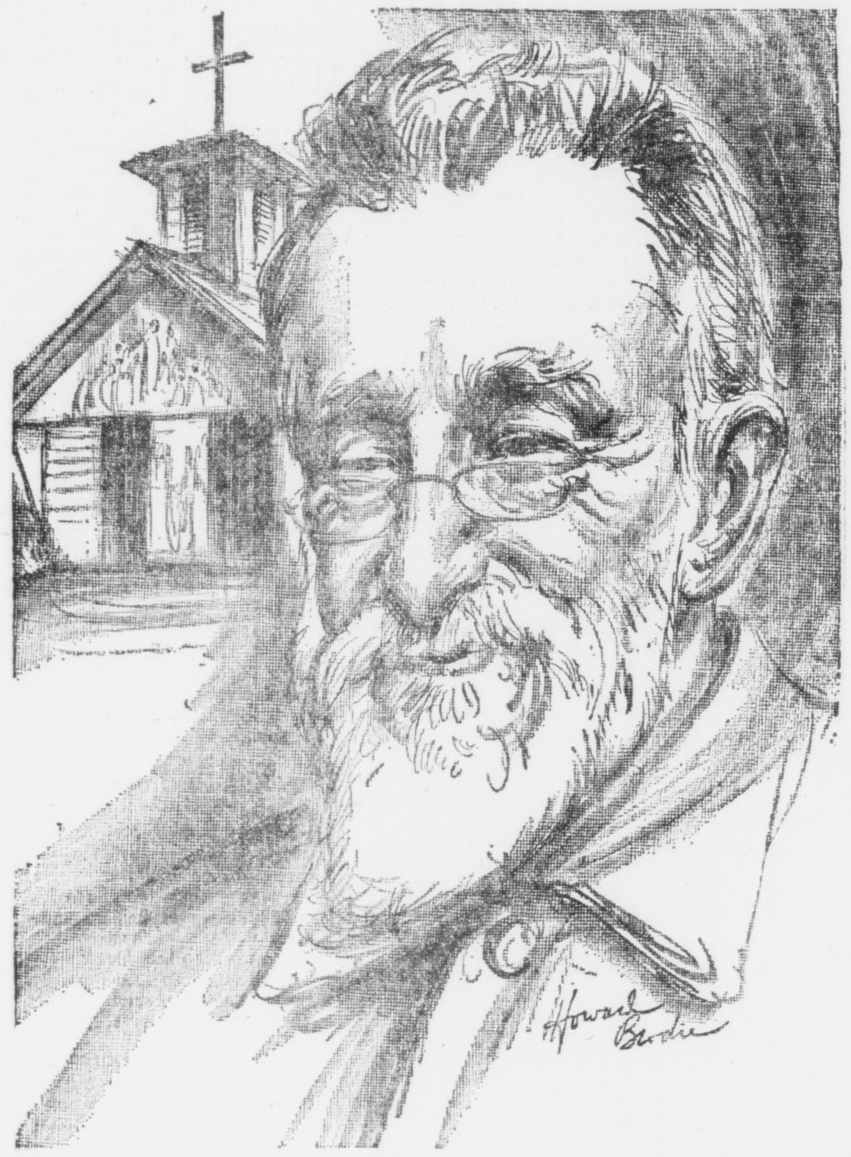

"Rock 'n' Roll Singer Shot" — headline. We never dreamt one could stand still long enough. . .

Herbert Hoover will be guest at baseball old - timers show. You remember Herb, he pitched that great game for Belgium in World War I and did such a rugged catching against the Roosevelt beanball in depression.

U.S. will be lucky if there is no Rickover-Soviet crisis. Soviet visitors to the U.S. fair criticize calling kitchenettes and bathrooms "rooms" in new home. Russia doesn't do this, they say. They're close to being right for once. The bathroom and kitchen are as much a part of a home as wheels on an auto and it seems a "come on" to say a house has seven rooms because the bathroom and kitchen are part of it.

The Power Of Faith

By Howard Brodie

A church was built in Stowe, Vt., 10 years ago in memory of a layman known affectionately as Brother Joseph Dutton. People of many faiths come to the Catholic Church of the Blessed Sacrament to pray or find inspiration in his life:

Joseph Dutton left Stowe in 1861 to enlist in the Union Army. He was a courageous soldier. Yet, after the Civil War he became a drunkard for 10 years. He conquered the habit and found faith. Regretting his wasted years, he determined to serve God. He learned of Father Damien's service to lepers on the Hawaiian island of Molokai. Joseph went to the leper colony and remained on the island over 40 years until his death there at 87. He was carpenter, mason and gardener; he dressed sores and performed surgery. He worked hard, arose early, sometimes didn't go to bed at all. At 84, he wrote, "The clock now strikes 4 A.M. and not one-quarter of what I hope to do is done." He took no money for his work and gave away all he had. He became head of the colony and watched it grow into one of the finest in the world.

When 16 U.S. Navy ships steamed by Molokai in 1908, they dipped their flags in salute to the veteran on orders of President Theodore Roosevelt.

"I was firm in at least one resolve," wrote Brother Dutton, ". . . to do what I could to help my neighbor in every way. It has been my hope never to falter in this . . ."

Terrorist Crews In Remote Places

By Victor Riesel

ZANZIBAR

There was a long blade in the sash of the filthy "skirt" of the bare chested captain of the dhow. There was as much ugliness on the faces of his six man crew as there was dirt on his shallow keeled sailing smuggling craft — and as much hatred for Americans. The Arab had us on a lonely dock. We had come to see what smuggling craft were like. We saw. We were jeered at and insulted.

Victor Riesel

Our driver, Mr. R. S. Mkumbi, got us out and we headed for Zanzibar town. From that ugly captain of the dhow on that Indian Ocean dock to Harry Bridges on the San Francisco waterfront may be a long and somewhat indirect line but hold on and I'll trace it for you.

Active on these waterfronts halfway across the world, in Dar Es Salaam and Zanzibar and Mombasa, is the apparatus of the Moscow-directed World Federation of Trade Unions.

IT HAS INFILTRATED something called the International Confederation of Arab Unions — and our intelligence people in Washington can prove that the WFTU has very detailed plans for capturing East African labor. This would put Moscow's Communist Party Central Committee in a position to cut us off from this part of the world or force our cargo ships to travel thousands of costly miles farther to reach vital bases, oil fields and mineral deposits.

So strategic, for example, is Zanzibar, that the British plan never to give up protecting it.

Britain's colonial policies call for independence of practically all its holdings except Gibraltar, Gambia, Aden — and Zanzibar.

This, of course, the Soviet Foreign Office knows as well as our State Department. So the Russian strategy is aimed at toppling these points from within. The Kremlin knows what few busy Americans know — and that is that at the base of most African national movements are new labor federations.

This is true over in Dar Es Salaam, capital of Tanganyika. There the Tanganyikan Federation of Labor is the power base of Julius Myerere's Tanganyika African National Union (TANU) which will rule that country next year.

UP IN NAIROBI, capital of Kenya, the base of power for 28-year-old Tom Mboya (who has a touch of Harry Belafonte in him) is the Kenya Federation of Labor. Mboya will some day be the African prime minister of an independent Kenya. Today these men are anti-Communist and powerful friends of the United States.

Men like these two stand between the Russians and the turning of the African continent into another China.

Therefore it is natural for the Soviets to attempt to infiltrate or to destroy the labor unions of our friends — who soon will govern 15-million people.

And the headquarters of the Kremlin's drive for labor power of Africa's 100-million African workers is Khartoum, in the Sudan.

From that sub-Sahara city, Soviet agents who are specialists in the customs of each region are dispatched to communities such as Zanzibar. Steel is the bellwether of the entire economy. If steel wages go up, wages in other industries will also go up. Then the price of the things the steel companies buy will go up, too, and costs are thus pyramided.

The whole nation will be affected by the kind of settlement reached in the steel strike.

If government intervenes to force a settlement favorable to the unions and unfavorable to the wage - price structure of the nation, the administration or party which brings about such a result will have to take full responsibility for another cycle of inflation.

Nixon's Test Of Poland

By Jay G. Hayden

In historical retrospect the most fateful circumstance in Vice President Nixon's current tour may be the belated Soviet refusal of his request to fly home by way of Siberia and the new state of Alaska.

It was Moscow's veto of this route which was given as the excuse for the surprise visit by the Nixon party to Poland for two days, beginning Aug. 3. Nixon will be the first American official of such high rank ever to visit a Russian satellite.

A visit to Poland by the vice president of the United States under any condition would be greatly important and in this case there are the elements of surprise and casualness which are sure to intensify Polish popular interest.

THE EVENT is usually significant in two other ways.

First, Khrushchev violently attacked Nixon because of U.S. official observance of "Captive Nations Week." As one of the Captives, Poland's reaction will be watched with interest.

Second, it was officially revealed at Bonn, after the Nixon trip to Poland was announced, that the West German Cabinet is considering the possibility of signing nonaggression pacts both with Poland and Czechoslovakia. For West Germany such an agreement presumably would include toleration of existing boundaries with those two Communist nations, at least to the extent of renouncing war as a means of reclaiming lands lost to them in World War II.

The German pronouncement clearly supplies Nixon with an important talking point. For some time past the United States has been urging the Bonn government to extend its trade relations with Poland and otherwise seek to appease the fear of German reprisal which is a continuing Polish prepossession. But Nixon scarcely would have dared to raise that subject in Warsaw except for the tip that West Germany itself is now considering it.

For two years the United States has been giving help to Poland in the form of surplus farm products and some other minor items but it has been greatly restrained in that regard by the Polish antipathy to Germany.

POLAND REMAINS a "captive" in the respect that Russian troops will camp on its soil and is entirely surrounded by Communist lands. October, 1956, Russia has been much more respectful of Polish viewpoints. It is wholly unlikely for example, that any other of the Communist satellite nations of Europe would dare invite the American vice president for a visit as Poland has done.

Under the government of Wladyslaw Gomulka, since 1956, police terrorism in Poland has all but disappeared. One of Gomulka's first acts was to release from prison the Catholic primate, Cardinal Wyszinski. Restored to his religious office, Wyszinski quickly won relatively free operation of churches of his faith. Religion in Poland still is under duress but it remains open and operating.

As was re-emphasized during Khrushchev's visit to Poland, there is little left of collectivized agriculture, which was the vogue before Gomulka took over and there has been a steady trend back toward private management and, in less degree, private ownership of industry.

SOCIALLY and intellectually, the Poles exercise a great amount of individual freedom. Poles cannot buy non-Communist publications from other countries on their newsstands but they can subscribe to them, with a fair chance that they will escape seizure by the censors. Even if seized, these outside publications somehow find their way into secondhand bookshops where anybody can buy them who has the price.

It will be interesting to compare the treatment of Nixon by the Polish population with Khrushchev's reportedly rather cool reception of him only a few days earlier.

Election Laws Underwent Revamping In Assembly

By REED SMITH

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio election laws underwent some far-reaching changes in the Democratic-controlled Legislature.

A new act permits straight-line party voting on machines now used in nearly a fourth of Ohio's 88 more populous counties. Many of them are party strongholds.

Republican opponents claimed that Democrats pushed through the change to help keep, and possibly extend, election gains that included control of the Legislature for the first time in a decade.

They warned that previous election changes for party advantage backfired on Republicans and might do so for Democrats in the future.

But the Legislature went ahead with the new law that allows all candidates of the same party to be lined up on the machines so that strictly partisan voters can mark a straight ticket by pulling down all the levers on a line.

Candidates' names were rotated on machines so that they appeared on both lines, requiring voters to hunt out their preferences to cast a party-line ballot.

That was done to conform with the office-type ballot approved by voters in 1949. The ballot lists candidates by the offices they seek and requires rotation of names. The change eliminated the practice of listing candidates under party emblems and made it impossible to vote for them all with a single "x" mark.

A more recent change decreed four-year terms for elected state officials. A Republican Legislature placed that issue before voters in 1956 when the party was riding high.

But last year, the first time state candidates ran for four-year terms, Democrats won most of the offices and control of the Legislature as well.

Another new law enacted by the 103rd General Assembly permits voters to reregister by mail for a two-year period. Democrat sponsors tried unsuccessfully to make mail registrations good for four years.

Voters who fail to cast ballots during a two-year period currently must go to election boards to reregister in person in counties requiring it.

Another change will permit out-of-state voters moving into Ohio to ballot for president and vice president, starting in 1960, if they have lived at least 40 days in their precinct. Present law requires a year's residence in the state.

The new law gives effect to a constitutional amendment adopted in 1957. The change required the Legislature to specify residence requirements.

Newcomers cannot vote in Ohio for president and vice president if they still are eligible to ballot in their home state. Nor can they vote for other candidates until after a full year's residence in Ohio.

Future ballots will look slightly different in general elections for state officials as a result of legislative action.

Candidates for attorney general, now listed in the sixth slot below governor, will appear in the third slot. Secretary of state candidates, formerly in third position, will be listed fifth. Treasurer candidates will go from fifth to sixth place.

The new lineup will be: governor, lieutenant governor, secretary of state, auditor, treasurer and attorney general.

Other new laws permit election boards to print clearly marked sample ballots, a practice often indulged in without statutory authority; allow use of a new punch-type voting machine, and make bank money orders or cashier's checks acceptable as deposits posted for vote recounts.

The new voting machine, about a third the size of conventional models, was invented by Martin Coyle, Butler County Republican chairman. He credited Democrat leaders with helping him win approval of the device, now nearly ready for mass production.

Punched ballots from the machine can be counted by tabulating devices to speed election returns, Coyle said.

Anyone For Army Beer Bust? Gotta Destroy, Not Drink It!

WASHINGTON (AP) — Any volunteers for an Army beer bust?

The mission: do away with what's left of 7,000 cans of beer on an island.

The catch: (There had to be one—this sounded too good to be true) you have to destroy — not drink — the brew. It's not fit to drink.

The beer is on St. Lawrence Island in the Bering Sea between the Soviet Union and Alaska. Two years ago, medical officers declared it unfit. And the Army stacked the beer cans in pits, poured oil and gasoline on them, burned them, ran them over with a tractor and then buried them.

But somehow natives salvaged some of the beer. They have been pulling cans out of the pits and drinking their contents. Then, in high spirits, they have destroyed property in the nearby village of Gambell.

The Village Council of that community has complained to Sen. E. L. (Bob) Bartlett (D-Alaska.)

Bartlett relayed the complaint to Lt. Gen. Frank A. Armstrong, head of the Unified Alaskan Command. And after a series of telegrams, Barlett reported Friday, Armstrong promised to airlift a platoon to the island. Its officer would be under orders "to certify as to complete destruction," Armstrong said.

Conneaut's First Radio Station To Be Built

CONNEAUT, Ohio (AP)—Louis W. Skelly of Youngstown says he will begin "almost immediately" building this city's first radio station. The Federal Communications Commission Friday approved his application — pending for two years—for a 500-watt, non-directional daytime radio station with a 1360 spot on the dial.

Skelly, currently manager of station WSOM in Salem, is a former owner of WBUX in Fredonia, N. Y. and has been in the radio field 20 years. He plans to have the offices and studio of the new station in downtown Conneaut and the transmitter at Lakeville.

Only one new home project was authorized along with three new garages. The remaining work was remodeling jobs at homes.

Here are the persons to whom the permits were issued, the work authorized and the estimated cost:

New Book Of Golden Essays Among Library's Acquisitions

Carl Sandburg says that Harry Golden has the talent of "mingling the utterly solemn with the irrestibly witty."

This now famous editor of the Carolina Israelite, a weekly newspaper published in Charlotte, N. C., has just written a new group of essays under the title of "For 2¢ Plain."

It is assured of being just as much a success as his first best-seller, "Only in America." The title originates from his boyhood reminiscence of the lower East Side of New York in buying a large-size glass of soda water without sirup for 2 cents. The object was to try to trick the man behind the marble counter into adding a drop of sirup without paying the third penny. The fact that Golden lives in the South and is himself a member of a so-called minority group makes his clever essays on integration, religion, and politics all the more remarkable.

Novels very frequently reflect the mood of a generation even more poignantly than the essay. Two current fiction products fulfill this formula — Warren Miller's "The Cool World" and Martin Kramer's "Sons of the Fathers."

The first is a story written in the vernacular of the Harlem gang. This gang dubbed "The Royal Crocodiles" knows a rumble is on when Duke starts strutting. Martin Kramer's book returns to the college generation of the depression years and follows the careers of six profoundly different college students in California through the war years. The common bond in "Sons of Fathers" is art.

"American Symbols—a Pictorial History" by Ernst Lehner is a clue to America's changing tastes and interests. This reference selection of the Ohio Reading Circle should prove most useful to the artist.

Political history affords still another mirror for getting a perspective on the world: Oscar Barck and Nelson Blake of Syracuse University weave an interesting pattern in "Since 1900," James Warburg comments on foreign affairs in "The West In Crisis," and Joachim Remak, an Oregon University professor, turns a microscopic lens on the events leading up to the murder of the Archduke Franz Ferdinand in "Sarajevo."

Summer finds Americans pursuing sports and hobbies. For the men, sailing and fishing seem to benon the upswing. "Fishing American" is a pictorial volume showing the techniques of experts. Jerome Brooks relates the story of America's defense of the most famous yachting trophy, "The $30,000,000 Cup." The first competition started in England in 1851 with the appearance of the Yankee schooner, "The America." She won and it was not until that 1870 that the English won back the trophy. The hunter may be looking ahead to next season's sport and learn much from Arthur Lieber's "How to Raise and Train a Dalmatian."

Women who like to scheme in a hammock about next fall's hobby—interior decorating, will find a quartet of inspirational books: "Be Your Own Decorator" by Marcia Rand; a wonderful guide on slip covering, upholstering and draperies is Ethel Brostrom's "Revive Your Rooms and Furniture"; Sunset magazine provides "Landscaping for Modern Living," and Helen Comstock produces a collector's item in "The 100 most Beautiful Rooms In America."

One of the great art critics and collectors of our day is an American who has spent most of his life in Europe. He is Bernard Berenson, who has recently collected his "Essays In Appreciation." The greatly honored poet, William Carlos Williams, has a new volume of poetry, "Patterson, Book Five." James Costigan, an American playwright, has achieved notable success with two television plays just out and under one cover, "Little Moon of Alban" and "A Wind From the South."

The library has just received "The Great Impostor" by Robert Crichton.

Infant Girl Drowns

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — A 15-month-old girl was drowned Friday when she fell into a swimming pool at the rear of her home. She was Laurel Ohm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohm of Rt. 3, Massillon. Mrs. Ohm told sheriff's deputies the child apparently crawled out of her play pen and then pushed open the gate to the fenced-in pool.

1 Killed, 1 Injured In Kentucky Accident

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP)—Pfc. John M. Cochran, 21, of Cincinnati was killed and a companion seriously injured here Friday. Their car hit a pole, ran through a fence and hit a barn, state police said.

Pfc. Richard Vonderheide, 19, also of Cincinnati, was the injured companion. The crash occurred on U. S. 31-W. The men were on leave from Ft. Campbell.

BLOOR'S PHARMACY MONTHLY NEWS

A message from Paul Bloor, 'Your Pharmacist'

AN OLDER PHARMACIST FRIEND once gave us this good advice which we have never forgotten and always tried to follow.

HE SAID, "ANY MEDICINE OR HEALTH-AID can do much good if properly used and great harm if improperly or excessively taken."

"PHARMACISTS LEARN IN COLLEGE how to compound medicines, protect their potency by proper storage and the possible dangers involved if they are not taken properly."

"PHARMACY'S CODE OF ETHICS directs pharmacists to consider the public's health to be more important than greater profits. It is the dedicated obligation of every pharmacist to caution folks who may be unwisely taking a patent medicine or home remedy."

PLEASE ASK OUR PROFESSIONAL OPINION of any patent medicine, vitamin, or home remedy. We will always give you an honest, informed answer. If necessary, we will explain when it would be wiser for you to consult a physician.

THIS HELPFUL ADVICE IS IMPORTANT. Every medicine or health-aid should only be secured from a pharmacist. We will never knowingly permit you to gamble with your health.

The first competition started in England in 1851 with the appearance of the Yankee schooner, "The America." She won and it was not until that 1870 that the English won back the trophy. The hunter may be looking ahead to next season's sport and learn much from Arthur Lieber's "How to Raise and Train a Dalmatian."

Women who like to scheme in a hammock about next fall's hobby—interior decorating, will find a quartet of inspirational books: "Be Your Own Decorator" by Marcia Rand; a wonderful guide on slip covering, upholstering and draperies is Ethel Brostrom's "Revive Your Rooms and Furniture"; Sunset magazine provides "Landscaping for Modern Living," and Helen Comstock produces a collector's item in "The 100 most Beautiful Rooms In America."

One of the great art critics and collectors of our day is an American who has spent most of his life in Europe. He is Bernard Berenson, who has recently collected his "Essays In Appreciation." The greatly honored poet, William Carlos Williams, has a new volume of poetry, "Patterson, Book Five." James Costigan, an American playwright, has achieved notable success with two television plays just out and ununder one cover, "Little Moon of Alban" and "A Wind From the South."

The library has just received "The Great Impostor" by Robert Crichton.

BLOOR'S PHARMACY MONTHLY NEWS

A message from Paul Bloor, 'Your Pharmacist'

AN OLDER PHARMACIST FRIEND once gave us this good advice which we have never forgotten and always tried to follow.

HE SAID, "ANY MEDICINE OR HEALTH-AID can do much good if properly used and great harm if improperly or excessively taken."

"PHARMACISTS LEARN IN COLLEGE how to compound medicines, protect their potency by proper storage and the possible dangers involved if they are not taken properly."

"PHARMACY'S CODE OF ETHICS directs pharmacists to consider the public's health to be more important than greater profits. It is the dedicated obligation of every pharmacist to caution folks who may be unwisely taking a patent medicine or home remedy."

PLEASE ASK OUR PROFESSIONAL OPINION of any patent medicine, vitamin, or home remedy. We will always give you an honest, informed answer. If necessary, we will explain when it would be wiser for you to consult a physician.

THIS HELPFUL ADVICE IS IMPORTANT. Every medicine or health-aid should only be secured from a pharmacist. We will never knowingly permit you to gamble with your health.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

The Sleeping Giant Within You

Last March a friend sent me a clipping from a Vicksburg, Mississippi, newspaper. It told the story of a gracious little lady who is known to her friends as "Miss Lou." The reason for the story was that she had been selected by the United States Chamber of Commerce as a symbol of the spirit and courage and greatness in American womanhood. She was honored along with a half-dozen distinguished men as one of the great persons of the year. Well, I've known Miss Lou for a number of years. And believe me, she is worthy of this honor because she has really done a great thing with her life. I remember sitting with her one day on the porch of a hotel at Point Clear, Alabama, some years ago, and trying to help her with the future of her life. Her husband had died and, she told me, "There isn't much that I can do, but I must do something. I haven't got any ability. What am I going to do?"

Dr. Peale

LET'S PRAY about it," I suggested. "Let's ask the Lord about you." We had a word of prayer and then we began exploring to find the guidance we had prayed for.

"I am sure you must be able to do something," I said. "No doubt you can sew?"

"No," she answered, "I can't sew—at least not in any unusual way."

"Well, then, certainly you can cook. All the Southern women I know are top-notch cooks."

"I'm afraid this is one who can't," she said.

"But you must be able to bake."

"No, I can't bake anything very exceptional."

We continued on down the list of home arts which might be turned into cash without any results until, suddenly, my prayer must have worked because it occurred to me to ask, "Did you ever make any candy?"

"Why, yes," she said. "That's one thing I do fairly well."

I asked her to make me a box of candy and send it to me. It came soon after. I disregarded my diet and sampled it and it was real good, superb in fact. In writing my thinks, I said, "That was some of the best candy I've ever tasted in my life. Why don't you go into the candy business?"

WE HAD quite a bit of correspondence about whether a dignified Southern gentlewoman should sell candy to her neighbors, but finally she decided to start a little shop in her own home.

Then she was persuaded to put out a sign and, eventually, to put signs on the highways to attract tourists. And these are there now. They read: "Miss Lou's Shop — The Sweetest Spot on Highway 80." Last year this little lady did an $18,000 business in that little shop. And the town she lives in has only 1,100 people. Tourists who have bought Miss Lou's candy write from all over the country to re-order and they all remember so pleasantly this inspring woman.

There was a sleeping giant within that little lady. And there is a giant in everybody reading these words. The Bible describes what is within Miss Lou, within you and within each of us in these words: "What is man, that Thou art mindful of him?...Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of Thy hands."

In other words, you have been given dominion over failure, over weakness, over every negative thing. Have you taken that dominion? Over yourself? Over your circumstances? Over your defeats? You have the stuff in you to do all of these things. God put it there. But only you can get it out. Only you can awaken and use the giant within you.

Confident Living

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale

The Sleeping Giant Within You

Last March a friend sent me a clipping from a Vicksburg, Mississippi, newspaper. It told the story of a gracious little lady who is known to her friends as "Miss Lou." The reason for the story was that she had been selected by the United States Chamber of Commerce as a symbol of the spirit and courage and greatness in American womanhood. She was honored along with a half-dozen distinguished men as one of the great persons of the year. Well, I've known Miss Lou for a number of years. And believe me, she is worthy of this honor because she has really done a great thing with her life. I remember sitting with her one day on the porch of a hotel at Point Clear, Alabama, some years ago, and trying to help her with the future of her life. Her husband had died and, she told me, "There isn't much that I can do, but I must do something. I haven't got any ability. What am I going to do?"

"LET'S PRAY about it," I suggested. "Let's ask the Lord about you." We had a word of prayer and then we began exploring to find the guidance we had prayed for.

"I am sure you must be able to do something," I said. "No doubt you can sew?"

"No," she answered, "I can't sew—at least not in any unusual way."

"Well, then, certainly you can cook. All the Southern women I know are top-notch cooks."

"I'm afraid this is one who can't," she said.

"But you must be able to bake."

"No, I can't bake anything very exceptional."

We continued on down the list of home arts which might be turned into cash without any results until, suddenly, my prayer must have worked because it occurred to me to ask, "Did you ever make any candy?"

"Why, yes," she said. "That's one thing I do fairly well."

I asked her to make me a box of candy and send it to me. It came soon after. I disregarded my diet and sampled it and it was real good, superb in fact. In writing my thinks, I said, "That was some of the best candy I've ever tasted in my life. Why don't you go into the candy business?"

WE HAD quite a bit of correspondence about whether a dignified Southern gentlewoman should sell candy to her neighbors, but finally she decided to start a little shop in her own home.

Then she was persuaded to put out a sign and, eventually, to put signs on the highways to attract tourists. And these are there now. They read: "Miss Lou's Shop — The Sweetest Spot on Highway 80." Last year this little lady did an $18,000 business in that little shop. And the town she lives in has only 1,100 people. Tourists who have bought Miss Lou's candy write from all over the country to re-order and they all remember so pleasantly this inspring woman.

There was a sleeping giant within that little lady. And there is a giant in everybody reading these words. The Bible describes what is within Miss Lou, within you and within each of us in these words: "What is man, that Thou art mindful of him?...Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; Thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of Thy hands."

In other words, you have been given dominion over failure, over weakness, over every negative thing. Have you taken that dominion? Over yourself? Over your circumstances? Over your defeats? You have the stuff in you to do all of these things. God put it there. But only you can get it out. Only you can awaken and use the giant within you.

Southern Baptists Gradually Pushing Frontier Northward

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

They call themselves the Southern Baptist Convention. But the tag is rapidly becoming a misnomer.

Quietly but surely, the Southern Baptists are pushing their denominational frontier northward with such success that they can no longer be considered strictly a regional church.

But don't say "We're competing with the other churches," says the Rev. Elmer Sizemore, assistant pastor of New York's Manhattan Baptist Church. "We're sort of coworkers with them."

The Manhattan Baptist Church is a prime example of Southern Baptist expansion.

It was founded two years ago as a mission with 40 members. Six months later it became a full-fledged church. Now it has more than 400 members and is still growing.

The New York church is the mother organization for a number of fledgling missionary chapels sprouting up in the northeast.

One is in Hempstead, L.I., the Southern Baptist's farthest penetration to the north.

A missionary chapel also is in the making in Middletown, Conn., where home fellowship meetings —a pre-chapel stage — currently are being held.

Despite the regional sound of their name, the Southern Baptists are a potent religious force nationally.

Their 9,200,000 members rank them second in size only to the Methodists among American Protestant churches.

This represents an increase of 2½ million members in 10 years, a ratio far exceeding the United States' population increase in that time.

Pastor To Serve As Junior High Camp's Director

The Rev. William L. Claghorn of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church in Chester will serve as director of the Junior High Camp at Presmont Camp on Piedmont Lake, Sunday through Aug. 8.

He will be assisted by a staff comprised of the Rev. Robert Shehan of the Bethlehem church at Wheeling, the Rev. John G. Lowe of the First U. P. Church at New Cumberland, and the Rev. Walter Elwood of the Ravenswood (W. Va.) church, the Rev. Alastair Parr of St. Marys (W. Va.) church and Richard Huggins of Wellsburg.

Women staff members include Mrs. Gerald Huggins, Miss Gretchen Lobmiller and Mrs. Betty Richmond of Wellsburg, Mrs. Elinor Hamill of Parkersburg, Miss Barbara Smith of Vienna and Miss Barbara Molle of Clarksburg.

Activities will include Bible study, nightly vespers, speakers, get-acquainted programs, talent night, crafts, and swimming. Friday night will feature water relays and a serenade by the boys and girls.

Those attending from the Chester church include Betty Allison, James Allison, Susan Ankrom, Hilda Conkle, Ann Gregory, Nancy Enochs, Patricia Mack, Edward Berry and John Nichol.

Alliance Church To Develop Tract Near Homeworth

LISBON — The Alliance Presbyterian Church is developing a 175-acre tract in Western Columbiana County as a conference grounds, family retreat and children's camp.

Located 13 miles southeast of Alliance near Homeworth, the land was part of the M. L. Lautzenheiser farm.

Money for the purchase was given by C. J. Rodman, Alliance industrialist and philanthropist, with the condition that church members develop the site. The gift is in memory of his mother, Lillie M. Rodman.

Dr. John V. Stephens, minister, said men of the church are now building roads and a parking lot and hope to have a picnic pavilion completed by the end of the summer. The church has 1,600 members.

Eventually there are to be cottages for families, an assembly hall, swimming pool, ponds and camping facilities for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and youth groups of the church.

The tract includes woodland, meadows, marshland and a small stream — source of the Mahoning River.

Coin Machines Looted In Dresden Ave. Tavern

An undetermined amount of cash was stolen early this morning by a thief who broke into three coin machines in the Buckeye Tavern, 622 Dresden Ave., police reported.

Mrs. Helen Kupresanin reported the burglary when she found the front door unlocked shortly before 6 a. m. today.

Police said the cash was taken from a juke box, bowling machine and cigarette machine and the thief apparently tampered with the safe.

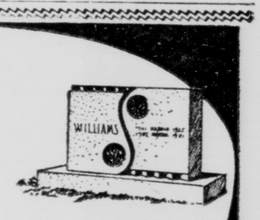

Entrance to the tavern was gained by breaking through a ventilator above a rear door, officers said. The theft occurred after 1:30 a.m., Mrs. Kupresanin told police.

Meanwhile, W. B. Douglas, operator of Harmony House, 104 W. 5th St., told police two Channel Master transistor radios were taken from the store between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. yesterday. The two radios were valued at approximately $90, he said.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	6	15-21
Monday	John	6	22-27
Tuesday	II Samuel	22	22-29
Wednesday	Ephesians	6	1-7
Thursday	II Timothy	4	6-12
Friday	I Corinthians	12	7-13
Saturday	Matthew	22	34-40

The imaginative adult waits for his ship to come in. The child watches his ship go out.

And only the ship which has gone out, will ever come in!

Success, in other words, comes to those who venture. Discovery is the reward only of the explorer.

But failure can repay our venturing; futility can frustrate our exploring.

What shall we seek when our ship goes out? This is the crucial question! Shall we seek the qualities of faith and noble life which make honest ventures worthwhile; or the selfish lures which make searching our downfall?

It is no strange coincidence that so many of the happy, contented, successful people in our community are also faithful church-goers. Jesus said:

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

NEEDED: $300.00 FOR KIDDIES CAMP

The Salvation Army is planning on sending twenty-five Deserving children to our Fort Herrick Camp at Mentor, Ohio, August 13 to 22.

We have secured sufficient funds to provide for only about half of the youngsters on our list.

The Steel Strike and other economic factors naturally affect us all.

However, we feel that we have friends in the area who are in a position to help fulfill the dreams that these youngsters have been anticipating for some time.

It takes approximately $25.00 to provide a 10 day camping period for each youngster, where they get plenty of fresh air, food, and fun in the many activities, planned for their welfare. Such a vacation under Christian influence and leadership has inspired good citizenship for many a boy and girl.

Southern Baptists Gradually Pushing Frontier Northward

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

They call themselves the Southern Baptist Convention. But the tag is rapidly becoming a misnomer.

Quietly but surely, the Southern Baptists are pushing their denominational frontier northward with such success that they can no longer be considered strictly a regional church.

But don't say "We're competing with the other churches," says the Rev. Elmer Sizemore, assistant pastor of New York's Manhattan Baptist Church. "We're sort of coworkers with them."

The Manhattan Baptist Church is a prime example of Southern Baptist expansion.

It was founded two years ago as a mission with 40 members. Six months later it became a full-fledged church. Now it has more than 400 members and is still growing.

The New York church is the mother organization for a number of fledgling missionary chapels sprouting up in the northeast.

One is in Hempstead, L.I., the Southern Baptist's farthest penetration to the north.

A missionary chapel also is in the making in Middletown, Conn., where home fellowship meetings —a pre-chapel stage — currently are being held.

Despite the regional sound of their name, the Southern Baptists are a potent religious force nationally.

Their 9,200,000 members rank them second in size only to the Methodists among American Protestant churches.

This represents an increase of 2½ million members in 10 years, a ratio far exceeding the United States' population increase in that time.

Pastor To Serve As Junior High Camp's Director

The Rev. William L. Claghorn of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church in Chester will serve as director of the Junior High Camp at Presmont Camp on Piedmont Lake, Sunday through Aug. 8.

He will be assisted by a staff comprised of the Rev. Robert Shehan of the Bethlehem church at Wheeling, the Rev. John G. Lowe of the First U. P. Church at New Cumberland, and the Rev. Walter Elwood of the Ravenswood (W. Va.) church, the Rev. Alastair Parr of St. Marys (W. Va.) church and Richard Huggins of Wellsburg.

Women staff members include Mrs. Gerald Huggins, Miss Gretchen Lobmiller and Mrs. Betty Richmond of Wellsburg, Mrs. Elinor Hamill of Parkersburg, Miss Barbara Smith of Vienna and Miss Barbara Molle of Clarksburg.

Activities will include Bible study, nightly vespers, speakers, get-acquainted programs, talent night, crafts, and swimming. Friday night will feature water relays and a serenade by the boys and girls.

Those attending from the Chester church include Betty Allison, James Allison, Susan Ankrom, Hilda Conkle, Ann Gregory, Nancy Enochs, Patricia Mack, Edward Berry and John Nichol.

Alliance Church To Develop Tract Near Homeworth

LISBON — The Alliance Presbyterian Church is developing a 175-acre tract in Western Columbiana County as a conference grounds, family retreat and children's camp.

Located 13 miles southeast of Alliance near Homeworth, the land was part of the M. L. Lautzenheiser farm.

Money for the purchase was given by C. J. Rodman, Alliance industrialist and philanthropist, with the condition that church members develop the site. The gift is in memory of his mother, Lillie M. Rodman.

Dr. John V. Stephens, minister, said men of the church are now building roads and a parking lot and hope to have a picnic pavilion completed by the end of the summer. The church has 1,600 members.

Eventually there are to be cottages for families, an assembly hall, swimming pool, ponds and camping facilities for Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and youth groups of the church.

The tract includes woodland, meadows, marshland and a small stream — source of the Mahoning River.

Coin Machines Looted In Dresden Ave. Tavern

An undetermined amount of cash was stolen early this morning by a thief who broke into three coin machines in the Buckeye Tavern, 622 Dresden Ave., police reported.

Mrs. Helen Kupresanin reported the burglary when she found the front door unlocked shortly before 6 a. m. today.

Police said the cash was taken from a juke box, bowling machine and cigarette machine and the thief apparently tampered with the safe.

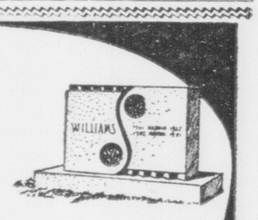

Entrance to the tavern was gained by breaking through a ventilator above a rear door, officers said. The theft occurred after 1:30 a.m., Mrs. Kupresanin told police.

Meanwhile, W. B. Douglas, operator of Harmony House, 104 W. 5th St., told police two Channel Master transistor radios were taken from the store between 5:30 and 6:30 p. m. yesterday. The two radios were valued at approximately $90, he said.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	6	15-21
Monday	John	6	22-27
Tuesday	II Samuel	22	22-29
Wednesday	Ephesians	6	1-7
Thursday	II Timothy	4	6-12
Friday	I Corinthians	12	7-13
Saturday	Matthew	22	34-40

The imaginative adult waits for his ship to come in. The child watches his ship go out.

And only the ship which has gone out, will ever come in!

Success, in other words, comes to those who venture. Discovery is the reward only of the explorer.

But failure can repay our venturing; futility can frustrate our exploring.

What shall we seek when our ship goes out? This is the crucial question! Shall we seek the qualities of faith and noble life which make honest ventures worthwhile; or the selfish lures which make searching our downfall?

It is no strange coincidence that so many of the happy, contented, successful people in our community are also faithful church-goers. Jesus said:

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

NEEDED: $300.00 FOR KIDDIES CAMP

The Salvation Army is planning on sending twenty-five Deserving children to our Fort Herrick Camp at Mentor, Ohio, August 13 to 22.

We have secured sufficient funds to provide for only about half of the youngsters on our list.

The Steel Strike and other economic factors naturally affect us all.

However, we feel that we have friends in the area who are in a position to help fulfill the dreams that these youngsters have been anticipating for some time.

It takes approximately $25.00 to provide a 10 day camping period for each youngster, where they get plenty of fresh air, food, and fun in the many activities, planned for their welfare. Such a vacation under Christian influence and leadership has inspired good citizenship for many a boy and girl.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a mosquito repellant for the face, hands, and other exposed parts of the body:

A. One ounce of glycerine, five drops of birchwood creosote, and five drops of eucalyptus is very effective for keeping mosquitoes away from you. Ordinary coal tar creosote should not be used, though.

Q. What can I do about a kink in the blade of my hand saw?

A. If you are unable to straighten this out by hand, simply lay the blade out on a flat wooden surface and tap the kink out with a wooden mallet.

Q. How Can I get paint spots off a windowpane?

A. Soak the glass with some hot vinegar, give this a few minutes to work, then rub or scrape the offending paint off.

Give 'Slowpoke' Aid In Speeding Up

We seem to live in the age of the quick and the dead. Usually a pedestrian has to be quick to keep alive. Yet some slowpoke children grow up and may live to be very old. Maybe slowpokes will excel in longevity over the quicker and more jittery persons. They won't burn themselves out so soon.

By Garry Meyers

However, slowpokes are not slow movers in all situations. You and I know children who specialize in slowpokeness. When I was a lad on the farm, my older brother could hook his team of horses to a plow or cultivator and be almost out of sight up the field before I had my team ready to begin. But at some other things I think I moved rather quickly.

Never can I remember anybody telling me to hurry up and get ready for school or to walk faster on the way or "to hurry and eat." To this day I usually eat too fast (and sometimes too much).

DURING WORLD War I, for several weeks at the training camp, I was about the last of my company to get my bunk and quarters tidied up.

Anyway, I have a great deal of sympathy for the slowpoke who is the last getting dressed for gym at school and hounded there and at home to hurry up.

But I have a hunch that most of these slowpokes, on discovering how to improve their skills in certain routine activities, could greatly speed up and gain satisfaction from doing so. I discovered this myself when hitching up horses and folding an army blanket.

The child, 5 to 10, who takes so long to dress might speed up this activity if he had a little help and encouragement there, instead of being yelled at to hurry up or scolded for being so slow.

A Minnesota mother writes of her child, 6, who excels at book learning:

"He is very slow at dressing and eating."

—:—

ADVISING THIS mother to help the child at times to dress and urging her to avoid the word "Hurry," related to dressing or eating, I explained that slowness in eating can have wide emotional problems. Best results may come from cutting down on the size of food servings with not a word about eating or eating faster.

One thing is certain: the more you hurry a slowpoke the slower he becomes.

My bulletins, "The Slowpoke" and "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Solution," may be had by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

How Can I? ? ?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a mosquito repellant for the face, hands, and other exposed parts of the body:

A. One ounce of glycerine, five drops of birchwood creosote, and five drops of eucalyptus is very effective for keeping mosquitoes away from you. Ordinary coal tar creosote should not be used, though.

Q. What can I do about a kink in the blade of my hand saw?

A. If you are unable to straighten this out by hand, simply lay the blade out on a flat wooden surface and tap the kink out with a wooden mallet.

Q. How Can I get paint spots off a windowpane?

A. Soak the glass with some hot vinegar, give this a few minutes to work, then rub or scrape the offending paint off.

Indians Nose Out Orioles Behind Rookie Jim Perry, 5-4

Chisox Rip Nats; Yanks Blast A's

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Things are getting a little bit hectic in that American League pennant race. Take Cleveland. The Indians dropped out of the lead because their No. 1 relief guy, Jim Perry, failed 'em — but they've managed to stay close because the same relief man has won two straight as a starting pitcher.

The lean right-hander blew a 3-0 lead, but hung on for a 5-4 victory over Baltimore Friday night that left the Injuns just one game back of Chicago. The White Sox kept the pressure on by beating Washington 7-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Barry Latman.

Kansas City's winning streak came to an end at 11 games as the New York Yankees walloped the third-place A's 11-2. Boston beat Detroit 6-5.

In the National League race, where things are really hectic, San Francisco clung to a half-game edge as rookie Willie McCovey broke up a 3-3 tie with an eight-inning single for a 4-3 decision over Pittsburgh. Milwaukee retained second place by beating St. Louis 6-0 on Bob Buhl's three-hitter. Third-place Los Angeles, also a half-game back, defeated Philadelphia 5-4, with Don Drysdale winning his 14th.

Cincinnati beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4 in the other NL game.

The Injuns came from behind with two runs in the eighth on a bases-loaded walk and Billy Martin's sacrifice fly. The Orioles, who left 11 men on base, had taken a 4-3 lead with an unearned run in the sixth.

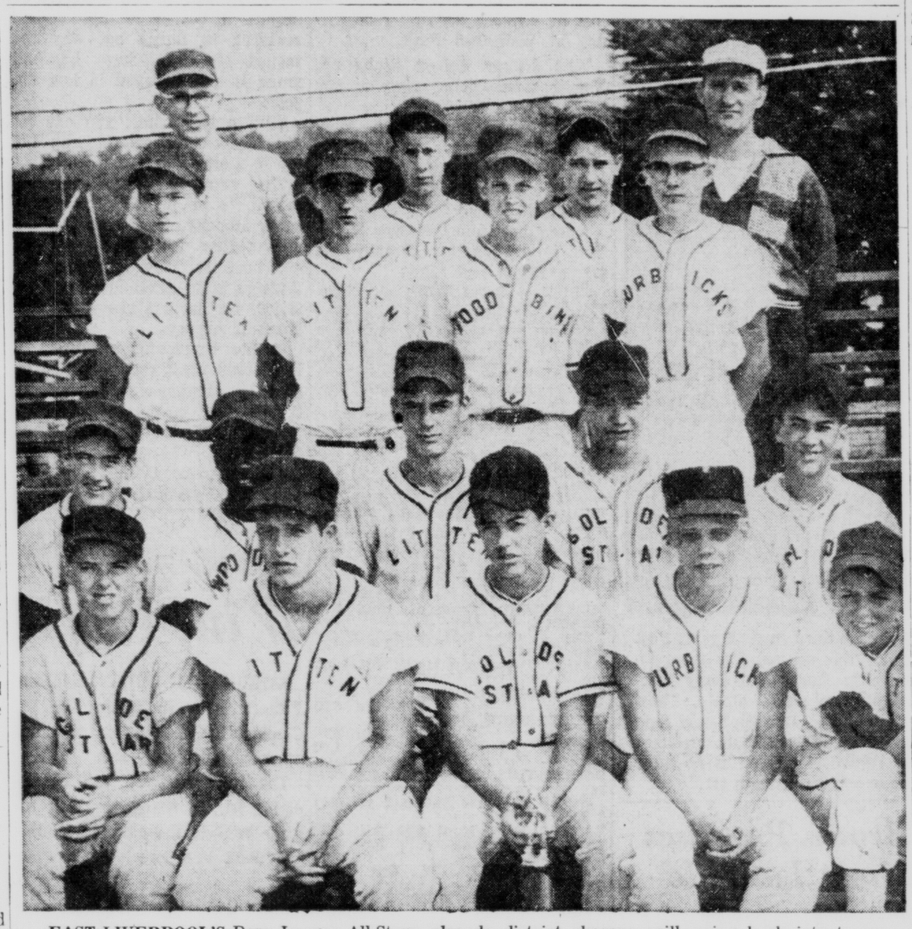

The White Sox, unbeaten in their last four games and winners in eight of their last nine, put it away with three-run bursts in the second and third innings against Pete Ramos (10-13), who lost his fifth straight as the last place Senators dropped their 13th straight.

Latman, pitching because Dick Donovan was side-lined by shoulder trouble, struck out 11 and had a three-hit shutout until the eighth, when rookie Bob Allison smacked his 27th home run.

Three home runs — by Yogi Berra, Elston Howard and Hector Lopez—powered a 13-hit barrage by the fifth-place Yankees while Don Larsen and Bobby Shantz combined for a four-hitter against the A's.

An unearned run in the eighth, forced home on a walk by reliever Ray Narleski after an error and two walks loaded the bases, gave Boston the decision at Detroit.

Barber's 134 Leads PGA At Halfway Point

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The David and Goliath struggle between Jerry Barber and Mike Souchak entered a third and climatic round today.

Barber, tiny and frail looking, held the lead at the halfway point of the National PGA Championship, but the broad, ominous shadow of Souchak stalked him again.

Twice in the last four years the little man from Los Angeles has been on the brink of tournament victories only to have them plucked away by great Souchak finishes.

This weekend the stakes are higher. After his remarkable five-under-par 65 at Minneapolis Golf Club course Friday the 43-year-old Barber is in a position to crown a 19-year pro golfing career with one of the glamorous titles in the game.

Heading into today's round Barber was six-under-par at 134, two strokes in front of Souchak, the gentle-mannered mauler from the Pennsylvania coal country. Both had first-day 69s to share in a nine-way split for first place.

Arrayed behind them were Doug Sanders at 138, defending champ Dow Finsterwald and Gene Littler at 139 and Cary Middlecoff, National Open Champion Bill Casper and Lionel Hebert at 140.

With that kind of lineup after 36 holes the 41st annual PGA was considerably more than a personal duel between Souchak and Barber. But for today their clash —they play in consecutive threesomes — was the focus of the whole tournament.

Charles Wipperman of New Philadelphia, Ohio, did not qualify for third round play. He had a 152 total on rounds of 77-75.

Wildness Of Loes Benefits Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians "walked" over the Baltimore Orioles, 5-4, in the opener of a four-game series Friday night. They stayed within one game of the pace-setting Chicago White Sox.

The Indians were behind, 4-3, going into their half of the eighth inning. George Strickland led off with a single to center field and then Billy Loes, the Orioles' ace relief pitcher, suddenly lost control. He issued three straight walks to force in the tying run. Billy Martin's sacrifice fly to deep left field scored the winning run.

Rookie right-hander Jim Perry picked up his seventh victory in 10 decisions, but Al Cicotte pitched the ninth inning and retired the Orioles on three ground balls.

The loss was the fourth in eight decisions for Loes, who relieved starter Arnold Portocarrero in the seventh inning.

Jack Harshman, obtained by Cleveland from the Boston Red Sox Wednesday, drew the walk that sent Strickland home with the tying run. He was batting for Perry.

Harshman is a pitcher, but formerly played first base for the Giants.

The Indians took a 3-0 lead in the third inning. Tito Francona's line single to right field sent two runners home after singles by Martin and Vic Power and a walk to Minnie Minoso filled the bases. Minoso scored on Rocky Colavito's tap ground out.

Perry fanned six batters while blanking the Orioles through the first four innings. He got another strikeout in the fifth after Chico Carrasquel and Bob Boyd singled. A single by Gene Woodling scored Carrasquel and Boyd went home on Gus Triandos' single. A sacrifice fly by Willie Tasby sent Woodling home to tie the score at 3-3.

Baltimore scored an unearned run in the sixth to take a 4-3 lead. A wild throw by third baseman Jim Baxes permitted Portocarrero to get on base. He went to second on a sacrifice by Carrasquel and scored on a single by Boyd.

Rookie Bobby Locke, who has won two games and lost one, goes against the Orioles' Hal (Skinny) Brown in the second game of the series this afternoon. Brown has a 7-6 record.

4 Teams Left At Midland, Finals Slated For Sunday

Wampum remained the only undefeated team in the Pennsylvania Non-Pro tournament which enters its finals Sunday.

The Wampum nine knocked off previously undefeated Freeport, 5-3, Friday at the Crucible Field and now stands as the favorite to win the tourney. Over 600 fans looked on Friday night.

Midland remained in contention with a 9-0 shutout over Moses Service of New Castle. The defeat eliminated Moses and left the field at four teams.

Today at 2 p. m. Freeport and Levittown were scheduled to play with the Midland meeting the winner of that game tonight at 9.

Finals are set Sunday at 2:30. If Wampum wins the first game needs only one victory to wrap up the championship. If Wampum loses the first game Sunday a second contest will be played Sunday at 8:30 p. m.

Friday, Bob Sedlack and Phil Hewitt combined to limit Moses to only four hits in Midland's shutout victory.

Casey Moans About Yanks' Mistreatment

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Casey Stengel held forth just off the third base line, describing in great detail how the other American League clubs had mistreated his New York Yankees and kicked them down into the second division.

"That old man in Chicago (Early Wynn of the White Sox) strikes out nine of my fellas. Pierce (Lefty Bill of the Sox) did almost as good. And that little second baseman (Nellie Fox). He killed us."

Casey droned on. His hired hands lounged and looked a little uncomfortable. Their derisive barbs yelled across at the A's dugout sounded unconvincing. After all, they were struggling along in fifth place and the A's had jumped from last to third place.

On the A's bench, where you might expect to find a tense crew intent on the job of keeping that 11-game streak going, acting manager Bob Swift grinned and told a questioner:

"I hope I never find out (how a losing big league manager feels)."

He couldn't know the Yanks were going to blast his dreams in a few minutes with a crushing 11-2 defeat.

Jets' Gibbons Halts Buffalo's Streak At Six

By The Associated Press

Literally, figuratively and on the mound, Joe Gibbon's a big man.

Columbus' rangy left-hander—he's 6-4—has compiled an amazing 11-7 record while toiling for the seventh-place Jets in the International League.

The 24-year-old Hickory, Miss. native, displayed his talent Friday night as he defeated the league-leading Buffalo Bisons for the third time and checked a Buffalo winning streak at six games with a five-hit, 2-1 triumph.

Despite Gibbon's victory, the Bisons lost no ground in the pennant race, remaining 8½ games in front of their closest pursuers.

Runners-up Havana and Richmond both lost. Montreal kayoed the Sugar Kings 6-2 and Rochester beat the Virginians 7-1. Toronto nipped Miami 2-1 in 10 innings in the league's other game.

Cloran Ejected For Disputing Play

Local Stars Nipped, 6-5, In Wild Game At Canton

The American All-Stars of the East Liverpool Little League bowed out of District 4 tournament play Friday evening when they lost a heart-breaker, 6-5, to Canton Timken at Canton.

The game was marked by a heated argument in the sixth inning which saw Manager Tom Cloran of East Liverpool ejected for disputing a ruling at home plate after Canton had dashed off the field with only two outs.

The local stars were trailing 5-3 when they came to bat in the top of the sixth.

Radcliffe, batting for Locke, was safe when First Baseman Miller of Canton dropped the throw from third on his ground ball. Burke ran for Radcliffe. Smith singled, Scott singled and Robinson forced Smith at third for the first out of the inning, with Burke scoring on the play.

Hissom struck out and the fireworks began as the Canton players ran off the field, believing it to be the third out.

During the confusion, Scott raced home with Robinson following. The umpires first waved the East Liverpool runners back to their bases, allowing no runs to score. Then they changed their mind and ruled that Scott's run counted but called Robinson out at home as the result of a play made on him by one of the Canton players who finally awoke to the situation.

Cloran argued in vain against the decision, finally being tossed out by the umpires.

When things had calmed down again and play resumed, the score read 5-5.

Canton then scored the winning run in the last of the seventh, bunting home the big one with runners on first and third.

The winners started things with a run in the bottom of the second inning, but East Liverpool came back in the top of the third to tally three times and take the lead.

Hissom singled, took second on a passed ball and scored when Johnson singled. Bob Woods then blasted a home run over the right-field fence, scoring behind Johnson.

In the fourth, Canton combined three walks and three singles for four runs to take the lead, 5-3, and set the stage for the rhubarb in the sixth.

The East Liverpool All - Stars had defeated Massillon, Wellsville and Scio before coming to the end of the tournament trail.

Mays And Rookie Click On Rigney's Strategy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Veteran Willie Mays and rookie Willie McCovey executed Manager Bill Rigney's strategy perfectly Friday night to keep the San Francisco Giants on top of the National League.

The Giants and the Pittsburgh Pirates were tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth. Milwaukee and Los Angeles both won so the Giants needed a victory to stay in first place.

Two were out when pitcher Harvey Haddix walked Willie Mays. Up next was Willie McCovey. The previous day, in his first major league appearance, McCovey had two triples and two singles in four trips to the plate. Against the left-handed Haddix he was hitless in three tries.

Rigney conferred with McCovey. Two pitches later Willie Mays set sail for second and slid in with a stolen base. Then Willie McCovey slapped a hit down the right field line. Mays scored and although McCovey was out trying to stretch his hit, the Giants had won.

Rigney's strategy?

"I just told McCovey not to hit at the first ball so Willie would have a chance to steal."

"When Willie stole it came to me that, if I hit, it would come out just as Rigney had planned," said the 6-foot-4 21-year-old rookie. "I really wanted that hit. I got it on a fast ball."

Indians Nose Out Orioles Behind Rookie Jim Perry, 5-4

Chisox Rip Nats; Yanks Blast A's

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Things are getting a little bit hectic in that American League pennant race. Take Cleveland. The Indians dropped out of the lead because their No. 1 relief guy, Jim Perry, failed 'em — but they've managed to stay close because the same relief man has won two straight as a starting pitcher.

The lean right-hander blew a 3-0 lead, but hung on for a 5-4 victory over Baltimore Friday night that left the Injuns just one game back of Chicago. The White Sox kept the pressure on by beating Washington 7-1 behind the four-hit pitching of Barry Latman.

Kansas City's winning streak came to an end at 11 games as the New York Yankees walloped the third-place A's 11-2. Boston beat Detroit 6-5.

In the National League race, where things are really hectic, San Francisco clung to a half-game edge as rookie Willie McCovey broke up a 3-3 tie with an eight-inning single for a 4-3 decision over Pittsburgh. Milwaukee retained second place by beating St. Louis 6-0 on Bob Buhl's three-hitter. Third-place Los Angeles, also a half-game back, defeated Philadelphia 5-4, with Don Drysdale winning his 14th.

Cincinnati beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4 in the other NL game.

The Injuns came from behind with two runs in the eighth on a bases-loaded walk and Billy Martin's sacrifice fly. The Orioles, who left 11 men on base, had taken a 4-3 lead with an unearned run in the sixth.

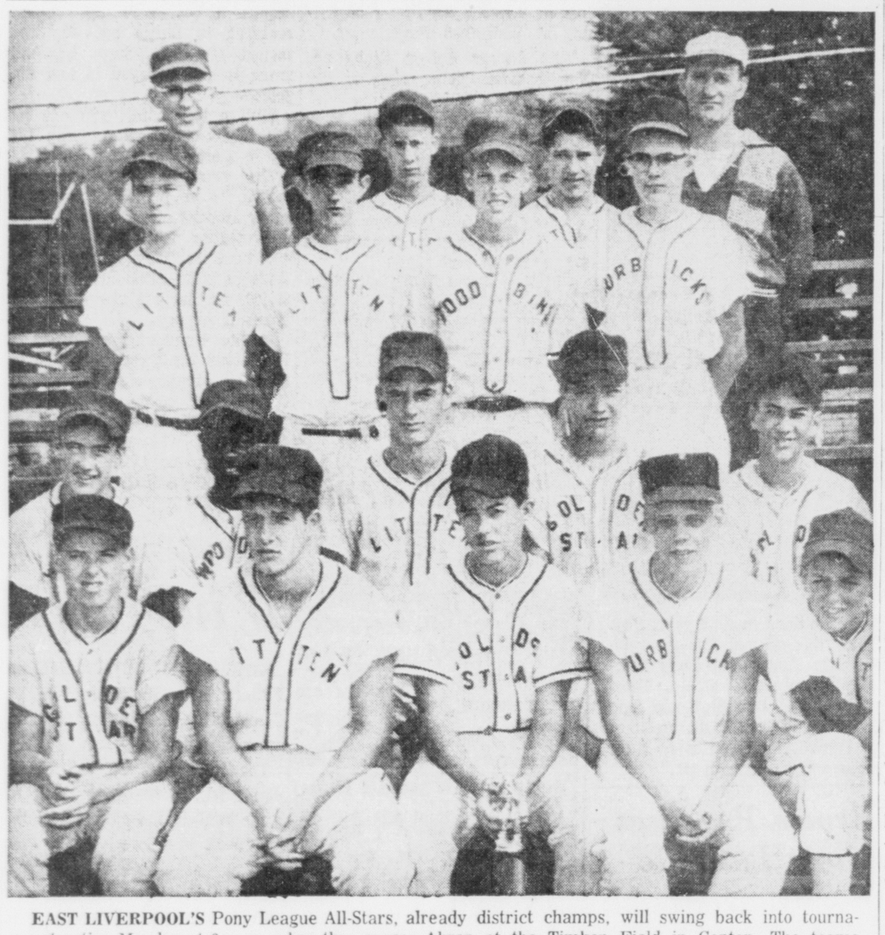

The White Sox, unbeaten in their last four games and winners in eight of their last nine, put it away with three-run bursts in the second and third innings against Pete Ramos (10-13), who lost his fifth straight as the last place Senators dropped their 13th straight.

Latman, pitching because Dick Donovan was side-lined by shoulder trouble, struck out 11 and had a three-hit shutout until the eighth, when rookie Bob Allison smacked his 27th home run.

Three home runs — by Yogi Berra, Elston Howard and Hector Lopez—powered a 13-hit barrage by the fifth-place Yankees while Don Larsen and Bobby Shantz combined for a four-hitter against the A's.

An unearned run in the eighth, forced home on a walk by reliever Ray Narleski after an error and two walks loaded the bases, gave Boston the decision at Detroit.

Barber's 134 Leads PGA At Halfway Point

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — The David and Goliath struggle between Jerry Barber and Mike Souchak entered a third and climatic round today.

Barber, tiny and frail looking, held the lead at the halfway point of the National PGA Championship, but the broad, ominous shadow of Souchak stalked him again.

Twice in the last four years the little man from Los Angeles has been on the brink of tournament victories only to have them plucked away by great Souchak finishes.

This weekend the stakes are higher. After his remarkable five-under-par 65 at Minneapolis Golf Club course Friday the 43-year-old Barber is in a position to crown a 19-year pro golfing career with one of the glamorous titles in the game.

Heading into today's round Barber was six-under-par at 134, two strokes in front of Souchak, the gentle-mannered mauler from the Pennsylvania coal country. Both had first-day 69s to share in a nine-way split for first place.

Arrayed behind them were Doug Sanders at 138, defending champ Dow Finsterwald and Gene Littler at 139 and Cary Middlecoff, National Open Champion Bill Casper and Lionel Hebert at 140.

With that kind of lineup after 36 holes the 41st annual PGA was considerably more than a personal duel between Souchak and Barber. But for today their clash —they play in consecutive threesomes — was the focus of the whole tournament.

Charles Wipperman of New Philadelphia, Ohio, did not qualify for third round play. He had a 152 total on rounds of 77-75.

Wildness Of Loes Benefits Indians

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Indians "walked" over the Baltimore Orioles, 5-4, in the opener of a four-game series Friday night. They stayed within one game of the pace-setting Chicago White Sox.

The Indians were behind, 4-3, going into their half of the eighth inning. George Strickland led off with a single to center field and then Billy Loes, the Orioles' ace relief pitcher, suddenly lost control. He issued three straight walks to force in the tying run. Billy Martin's sacrifice fly to deep left field scored the winning run.

Rookie right-hander Jim Perry picked up his seventh victory in 10 decisions, but Al Cicotte pitched the ninth inning and retired the Orioles on three ground balls.

The loss was the fourth in eight decisions for Loes, who relieved starter Arnold Portocarrero in the seventh inning.

Jack Harshman, obtained by Cleveland from the Boston Red Sox Wednesday, drew the walk that sent Strickland home with the tying run. He was batting for Perry.

Harshman is a pitcher, but formerly played first base for the Giants.

The Indians took a 3-0 lead in the third inning. Tito Francona's line single to right field sent two runners home after singles by Martin and Vic Power and a walk to Minnie Minoso filled the bases. Minoso scored on Rocky Colavito's tap ground out.

Perry fanned six batters while blanking the Orioles through the first four innings. He got another strikeout in the fifth after Chico Carrasquel and Bob Boyd singled. A single by Gene Woodling scored Carrasquel and Boyd went home on Gus Triandos' single. A sacrifice fly by Willie Tasby sent Woodling home to tie the score at 3-3.

Baltimore scored an unearned run in the sixth to take a 4-3 lead. A wild throw by third baseman Jim Baxes permitted Portocarrero to get on base. He went to second on a sacrifice by Carrasquel and scored on a single by Boyd.

Rookie Bobby Locke, who has won two games and lost one, goes against the Orioles' Hal (Skinny) Brown in the second game of the series this afternoon. Brown has a 7-6 record.

4 Teams Left At Midland, Finals Slated For Sunday

Wampum remained the only undefeated team in the Pennsylvania Non-Pro tournament which enters its finals Sunday.

The Wampum nine knocked off previously undefeated Freeport, 5-3, Friday at the Crucible Field and now stands as the favorite to win the tourney. Over 600 fans looked on Friday night.

Midland remained in contention with a 9-0 shutout over Moses Service of New Castle. The defeat eliminated Moses and left the field at four teams.

Today at 2 p. m. Freeport and Levittown were scheduled to play with the Midland meeting the winner of that game tonight at 9.

Finals are set Sunday at 2:30. If Wampum wins the first game needs only one victory to wrap up the championship. If Wampum loses the first game Sunday a second contest will be played Sunday at 8:30 p. m.

Friday, Bob Sedlack and Phil Hewitt combined to limit Moses to only four hits in Midland's shutout victory.

Casey Moans About Yanks' Mistreatment

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Casey Stengel held forth just off the third base line, describing in great detail how the other American League clubs had mistreated his New York Yankees and kicked them down into the second division.

"That old man in Chicago (Early Wynn of the White Sox) strikes out nine of my fellas. Pierce (Lefty Bill of the Sox) did almost as good. And that little second baseman (Nellie Fox). He killed us."

Casey droned on. His hired hands lounged and looked a little uncomfortable. Their derisive barbs yelled across at the A's dugout sounded unconvincing. After all, they were struggling along in fifth place and the A's had jumped from last to third place.

On the A's bench, where you might expect to find a tense crew intent on the job of keeping that 11-game streak going, acting manager Bob Swift grinned and told a questioner:

"I hope I never find out (how a losing big league manager feels)."

He couldn't know the Yanks were going to blast his dreams in a few minutes with a crushing 11-2 defeat.

Jets' Gibbons Halts Buffalo's Streak At Six

By The Associated Press

Literally, figuratively and on the mound, Joe Gibbon's a big man.

Columbus' rangy left-hander—he's 6-4—has compiled an amazing 11-7 record while toiling for the seventh-place Jets in the International League.

The 24-year-old Hickory, Miss. native, displayed his talent Friday night as he defeated the league-leading Buffalo Bisons for the third time and checked a Buffalo winning streak at six games with a five-hit, 2-1 triumph.

Despite Gibbon's victory, the Bisons lost no ground in the pennant race, remaining 8½ games in front of their closest pursuers.

Runners-up Havana and Richmond both lost. Montreal kayoed the Sugar Kings 6-2 and Rochester beat the Virginians 7-1. Toronto nipped Miami 2-1 in 10 innings in the league's other game.

Cloran Ejected For Disputing Play

Local Stars Nipped, 6-5, In Wild Game At Canton

The American All-Stars of the East Liverpool Little League bowed out of District 4 tournament play Friday evening when they lost a heart-breaker, 6-5, to Canton Timken at Canton.

The game was marked by a heated argument in the sixth inning which saw Manager Tom Cloran of East Liverpool ejected for disputing a ruling at home plate after Canton had dashed off the field with only two outs.

The local stars were trailing 5-3 when they came to bat in the top of the sixth.

Radcliffe, batting for Locke, was safe when First Baseman Miller of Canton dropped the throw from third on his ground ball. Burke ran for Radcliffe. Smith singled, Scott singled and Robinson forced Smith at third for the first out of the inning, with Burke scoring on the play.

Hissom struck out and the fireworks began as the Canton players ran off the field, believing it to be the third out.

During the confusion, Scott raced home with Robinson following. The umpires first waved the East Liverpool runners back to their bases, allowing no runs to score. Then they changed their mind and ruled that Scott's run counted but called Robinson out at home as the result of a play made on him by one of the Canton players who finally awoke to the situation.

Cloran argued in vain against the decision, finally being tossed out by the umpires.

When things had calmed down again and play resumed, the score read 5-5.

Canton then scored the winning run in the last of the seventh, bunting home the big one with runners on first and third.

The winners started things with a run in the bottom of the second inning, but East Liverpool came back in the top of the third to tally three times and take the lead.

Hissom singled, took second on a passed ball and scored when Johnson singled. Bob Woods then blasted a home run over the right-field fence, scoring behind Johnson.

In the fourth, Canton combined three walks and three singles for four runs to take the lead, 5-3, and set the stage for the rhubarb in the sixth.

The East Liverpool All - Stars had defeated Massillon, Wellsville and Scio before coming to the end of the tournament trail.

Mays And Rookie Click On Rigney's Strategy

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Veteran Willie Mays and rookie Willie McCovey executed Manager Bill Rigney's strategy perfectly Friday night to keep the San Francisco Giants on top of the National League.

The Giants and the Pittsburgh Pirates were tied 3-3 in the bottom of the eighth. Milwaukee and Los Angeles both won so the Giants needed a victory to stay in first place.

Two were out when pitcher Harvey Haddix walked Willie Mays. Up next was Willie McCovey. The previous day, in his first major league appearance, McCovey had two triples and two singles in four trips to the plate. Against the left-handed Haddix he was hitless in three tries.

Rigney conferred with McCovey. Two pitches later Willie Mays set sail for second and slid in with a stolen base. Then Willie McCovey slapped a hit down the right field line. Mays scored and although McCovey was out trying to stretch his hit, the Giants had won.

Rigney's strategy?

"I just told McCovey not to hit at the first ball so Willie would have a chance to steal."

"When Willie stole it came to me that, if I hit, it would come out just as Rigney had planned," said the 6-foot-4 21-year-old rookie. "I really wanted that hit. I got it on a fast ball."

Giants Nip Pirates In 9th, 4-3, To Hold Half Game Lead

Braves, Reds And Dodgers Rack Up Wins

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The way this Willie McCovey's going he'll be playing for the National League in Monday's All-Star game.

The 6-4 first baseman, a .377 hitter at Phoenix in the Pacific Coast League just two nights ago, followed up Thursday's somewhat sensational 4-for-4 debut with San Francisco by singling home an eighth-inning run that beat Pittsburgh 4-3 Friday night.

That kept the Giants in first place by a half game. Second-place Milwaukee beat St. Louis 6-0 behind a three-hitter by Bob Buhl. Third-place Los Angeles, also a half-game behind, beat Philadelphia 5-4 as Don Drysdale struck out 14 and won his sixth straight.

Cincinnati beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4 in the other NL game.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox retained their one-game edge by beating Washington 7-1 on a four-hitter by Barry Latman. Cleveland's second-place Indians beat Baltimore 5-4 as relief man Jim Perry won his second straight as a starter.

Kansas City's winning streak ended at 11 with an 11-2 whipping by New York. Boston edged Detroit 6-5.

The Giants twice came from behind against the Pirates, who have lost 10 of their last 11, then blew a 3-2 lead in the eighth. That's when McCovey, hitless in three trips against left-hander Harvey Haddix (7-9), ripped a two-out single that brought home Willie Mays, who had walked and then stole second.

That opening line about McCovey making the All-Star game may not be a gag at that. NL President Warren Giles announced Friday that Dodger Charlie Neal, whose absence from the original squad left Los Angeles fans howling, will replace Cardinal Bill White for the second "classic."

Neal's selection, likely to lure a few more cash customers to the game at the LA Coliseum, was made, said Giles, because White has a ankle injury.

White played the whole game for the Cardinals Friday night, and had one of their three hits off Buhl. The club, playing White "out of necessity" according to a Giles' spokesman, wants him to undergo treatment Monday.

The Braves didn't have a hit off Dean Stone (0-1), an AL castoff making his first National League start, for five innings, then opened up for a five-run sixth capped by Joe Adcock's two-on homer. Hank Aaron added his 28th home run in the eighth.

Los Angeles scored four in the first while chasing Gene Conley (9-7), then got the big run in the eighth on a homer by Norm Larker.

The Reds came from behind, then blew a 4-2 lead on George Altman's two-run homer in the ninth before Johnny Powers' pinch hit homer beat the Cubs with two out in the ninth.

Phils Go P-f-f-t As Don Drysdale Strikes Out 14

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies may have been going like gangbusters elsewhere, but in the Coliseum they still go p-f-f-t-t-t!

The last-place Phils, who had astonished practically everyone by winning 10 of their previous 14 games, had the misfortune of running into Don Drysdale Friday night when he was delivering fast balls like pistol shots. The towering right-hander had 14 strikeouts before the exercise was over and the Dodgers stopped the Phils 5-4, remaining a half game out of first place.

Tonight Philadelphia will try for the eighth time to pick up its first victory of the season in the Coliseum.

The 6-foot-6 Drysdale has now fanned 173 batters, more than any other pitcher in the majors, in 199 1-3 innings. Friday night's victory was his sixth in a row and No. 8 in his last 9 decisions. It also was his fifth straight complete game.

Drysdale, who has six losses, has allowed only 18 earned runs in his last 88 innings.

Driver Sets Own Rates Under New Insurance Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state superintendent of insurance has approved the plan of a Boston company which will permit its Ohio customers virtually to set their own automobile insurance rates.

The rating plan, filed by the Employers Group of Insurance Companies, was approved Friday by E. A. Stowell, superintendent of insurance.

Effective today, it is geared to the number of traffic points accumulated by a motorist over a two-year period.

With this plan premiums will be from 20 per cent less to 100 per cent more than stated rates.

Six points are assigned for conviction on charges of drunken driving, hit-skip, manslaughter and driving during license suspension. The program assigns lesser points for other offenses.

He also announced approval of a new single limit auto policy. It carries a reduced rate for drivers who have had no more than two moving traffic accidents in the last three years and no convictions. Effective Sunday it is offered by the Idemnity Insurance Co. of North America.

Brown Promises More 'Latitude' For Quarterback

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Quarterbacks will be given more latitude in directing the Cleveland Browns' offense this fall than in the past.

Coach Paul Brown will continue to select each play on the sideline, but if the quarterback sees the defense stacked at the point of attack he will be free to check off—select an optional play.

This is the Browns' first move toward the checkoff system, which several other teams in the National Football League have been using.

The system, which keeps the overall strategy in the hands of the coach and yet maintains a flexible offense, will be tried by the Browns in the exhibition games which precede the regular season schedule. Quarterbacks Milt Plum and Jim Ninowski have been calling the checkoffs in daily practices here.

West Virginia Warns Boatmen On New License

It appears that 6,500 boat owners in West Virginia will be liable to fines of from $25 to $500 unless they do something in a hurry.

The conservation Department announced at Charleston that the deadline for the new $5 license for boats with engines of more than 5 horsepower would not be extended a second time.

A first extension of a month from the original July 1 deadline was granted when so few boat owners bought the licenses. The number has not risen as hoped during the extra time. The department reported only 3,559 licenses sold so far — and it estimates about 10,000 are needed.

A crackdown starting today was threatened.

The license money goes toward paying for the enforcement of the boat law passed by the last Legislature. It is meant to curb reckless or negligent boating. Safety patrols of heavily used waterways already have been begun.

Second All-Star Game Set Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It doesn't require a course in motivational research to figure out why the second 1959 All-Star baseball game is being played in Los Angeles.

With a typewriter, you can hit squarely on the reason with the tap of a single key—$

The season's second All-Star match, to be played at the Coliseum Monday, was scheduled after the New York Yankees came out here in May and met the Dodgers in an exhibition that drew 93,103, the largest crowd in U.S. baseball history.

If the majors didn't know it then, they must surely realize by now that Monday's game won't do that kind of business.

But they'll play it anyway. And the players, who get the proceeds for their pension fund, will just have to be satisfied with a crowd of perhaps 45,000 or 55,000 and maybe a half million dollars in Revenue.

The rosters of the two leagues will be much the same as they were in Pittsburgh July 7, when the Nationals won 5-4 and cut the American League's lead in the 26-year-old series to 15-11. Each manager was permitted to add three players to his squad for the second game and to select new pitchers. Casey Stengel of the Americans made some new pitching selections but Fred Haney of the Nationals didn't know he had this option, so he'll have the same staff.

The game starts at 4 p.m. local time (7 p.m. EDT) when the evening traffic jam is approaching its ghastly maturity here. Many people undoubtedly will elect to stay home and see the show on TV.

Powers' Pinch Homer Wins For Redlegs, 5-4

CINCINNATI (AP) — Johnny Powers is an outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds, but chances are most fans don't know it.

The Reds beat Chicago Friday night, 5-4, on the strength of his home run—in the clutch, too. But you don't hear much about Powers.

John Calvin Powers occupies a special limbo in big league baseball. He's a utility outfielder—a man considered not quite good enough to be a starter but with enough talent to take over for an injured starter.

The Reds' outfield now has the prize rookie, Vada Pinson, and veteran slugger Gus Bell, Frank Thomas, a fielder, and Jerry Lynch, a hitter, share the third spot.

Powers is a 28-year-old Alabama strong boy whose chief talent, naturally enough, is hitting. He came to the Reds in a trade with Pittsburgh last winter.

Friday night the Reds had stacked up a 4-2 lead, but starter Don Newcombe had to leave in the eighth inning because an old groin muscle injury flared up.

Jim Brosnan took over and lost no time getting into hot water.

In the ninth, Bobby Thomson singled and George Altman promptly homered, squaring the issue, 4-4.

Starting the Reds' half of the ninth, 14 Rhinelanders had been retired in a row by the Cubs' pitching. Willie Jones and Roy McMillan made it 16. They both struck out.

Powers got the nod to hit for pitcher Brosnan, and slammed the game - winning homer into the right field bleachers. It was his second pinch homer in six games.

The Cubs had struck for a first inning run on Tony Taylor's double and Ernie Banks' single. One more Chicago marker came in the third when Taylor walked, reached second on Alvin Dark's single and Jim Marshall doubled him home.

But Cincinnati started scoring with one run in the third. Newk singled, and singles by Pinson and Bell brought him home.

The three-run fourth inning was the Reds' big effort. Singles by Jerry Lynch, Jones and McMillan loaded the bases and Newk's walk forced in one run. Then came a clean two-run single by Johnny Temple. Reliefer Bill Henry shut down the inning.

The second of three games with Chicago comes today with Glen Hobbie slated to oppose Bob Purkey.

Len Matthews Wins Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—If you saw Friday night's fight between Len Matthews and Candy McFarland, you must have been wondering what they were talking about. You couldn't have been wondering who was going to win for Matthews won the all-Philadelphia main event from here to Philadelphia.

"Get ready. I'm coming," snarled Candy who was in reverse gear most of the 10 rounds.

"I'll be here," answered Matthews. He was, too. After chasing Candy for six rounds he caught up with him in the seventh and eighth and gave him his lumps. Again in the 10th, he floored Candy with a left hook. Candy was up at two but had to take an automatic eight-count.

"He kept trying to pull that Sugar Ray stuff on me, getting my mind off my business," said Matthews. Robinson, the middleweight champ (in New York State) was working in Candy's corner as a second.

"In the last round I told him 'I'm going to take you out of here because you're too fresh," said Matthews. "He tried to sneak punch me with chatter like that Sugar Ray told him."

The decision for Matthews was unanimous. Judge Artie Aidala had it 9-1, Judge Joe Eppy 8-2 and Referee Al Berl 6-3-1. The AP card also was 9-1. Matthews weighed 135, McFarland 135½ pounds.

Rate Boosts Granted To Electric Concern

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—In a 2-1 decision, the Utilities Commission has granted rate increases sought for eight months by the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co.

The decision Friday means an increase of a dollar to $1.50 a month on residential users' electric bills. The new billing starts Monday, but affects only Columbus and unincorporated areas of Franklin County.

However, the utility is expected to seek similar increases in its 23-county area in the next month.

Giants Nip Pirates In 9th, 4-3, To Hold Half Game Lead

Braves, Reds And Dodgers Rack Up Wins

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The way this Willie McCovey's going he'll be playing for the National League in Monday's All-Star game.

The 6-4 first baseman, a .377 hitter at Phoenix in the Pacific Coast League just two nights ago, followed up Thursday's somewhat sensational 4-for-4 debut with San Francisco by singling home an eighth-inning run that beat Pittsburgh 4-3 Friday night.

That kept the Giants in first place by a half game. Second-place Milwaukee beat St. Louis 6-0 behind a three-hitter by Bob Buhl. Third-place Los Angeles, also a half-game behind, beat Philadelphia 5-4 as Don Drysdale struck out 14 and won his sixth straight.

Cincinnati beat the Chicago Cubs 5-4 in the other NL game.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox retained their one-game edge by beating Washington 7-1 on a four-hitter by Barry Latman. Cleveland's second-place Indians beat Baltimore 5-4 as relief man Jim Perry won his second straight as a starter.

Kansas City's winning streak ended at 11 with an 11-2 whipping by New York. Boston edged Detroit 6-5.

The Giants twice came from behind against the Pirates, who have lost 10 of their last 11, then blew a 3-2 lead in the eighth. That's when McCovey, hitless in three trips against left-hander Harvey Haddix (7-9), ripped a two-out single that brought home Willie Mays, who had walked and then stole second.

That opening line about McCovey making the All-Star game may not be a gag at that. NL President Warren Giles announced Friday that Dodger Charlie Neal, whose absence from the original squad left Los Angeles fans howling, will replace Cardinal Bill White for the second "classic."

Neal's selection, likely to lure a few more cash customers to the game at the LA Coliseum, was made, said Giles, because White has a ankle injury.

White played the whole game for the Cardinals Friday night, and had one of their three hits off Buhl. The club, playing White "out of necessity" according to a Giles' spokesman, wants him to undergo treatment Monday.

The Braves didn't have a hit off Dean Stone (0-1), an AL castoff making his first National League start, for five innings, then opened up for a five-run sixth capped by Joe Adcock's two-on homer. Hank Aaron added his 28th home run in the eighth.

Los Angeles scored four in the first while chasing Gene Conley (9-7), then got the big run in the eighth on a homer by Norm Larker.

The Reds came from behind, then blew a 4-2 lead on George Altman's two-run homer in the ninth before Johnny Powers' pinch hit homer beat the Cubs with two out in the ninth.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies may have been going like gangbusters elsewhere, but in the Coliseum they still go p-f-f-t-t!

The last-place Phils, who had astonished practically everyone by winning 10 of their previous 14 games, had the misfortune of running into Don Drysdale Friday night when he was delivering fast balls like pistol shots. The towering right-hander had 14 strikeouts before the exercise was over and the Dodgers stopped the Phils 5-4, remaining a half game out of first place.

Tonight Philadelphia will try for the eighth time to pick up its first victory of the season in the Coliseum.

The 6-foot-6 Drysdale has now fanned 173 batters, more than any other pitcher in the majors, in 199 1-3 innings. Friday night's victory was his sixth in a row and No. 8 in his last 9 decisions. It also was his fifth straight complete game.

Drysdale, who has six losses, has allowed only 18 earned runs in his last 88 innings.

Driver Sets Own Rates Under New Insurance Plan

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state superintendent of insurance has approved the plan of a Boston company which will permit its Ohio customers virtually to set their own automobile insurance rates.

The rating plan, filed by the Employers Group of Insurance Companies, was approved Friday by E. A. Stowell, superintendent of insurance.

Effective today, it is geared to the number of traffic points accumulated by a motorist over a two-year period.

With this plan premiums will be from 20 per cent less to 100 per cent more than stated rates.

Six points are assigned for conviction on charges of drunken driving, hit-skip, manslaughter and driving during license suspension. The program assigns lesser points for other offenses.

He also announced approval of a new single limit auto policy. It carries a reduced rate for drivers who have had no more than two moving traffic accidents in the last three years and no convictions. Effective Sunday it is offered by the Idemnity Insurance Co. of North America.

Brown Promises More 'Latitude' For Quarterback

HIRAM, Ohio (AP) — Quarterbacks will be given more latitude in directing the Cleveland Browns' offense this fall than in the past.

Coach Paul Brown will continue to select each play on the sideline, but if the quarterback sees the defense stacked at the point of attack he will be free to check off—select an optional play.

This is the Browns' first move toward the checkoff system, which several other teams in the National Football League have been using.

The system, which keeps the overall strategy in the hands of the coach and yet maintains a flexible offense, will be tried by the Browns in the exhibition games which precede the regular season schedule. Quarterbacks Milt Plum and Jim Ninowski have been calling the checkoffs in daily practices here.

West Virginia Warns Boatmen On New License

It appears that 6,500 boat owners in West Virginia will be liable to fines of from $25 to $500 unless they do something in a hurry.

The conservation Department announced at Charleston that the deadline for the new $5 license for boats with engines of more than 5 horsepower would not be extended a second time.

A first extension of a month from the original July 1 deadline was granted when so few boat owners bought the licenses. The number has not risen as hoped during the extra time. The department reported only 3,559 licenses sold so far — and it estimates about 10,000 are needed.

A crackdown starting today was threatened.

The license money goes toward paying for the enforcement of the boat law passed by the last Legislature. It is meant to curb reckless or negligent boating. Safety patrols of heavily used waterways already have been begun.

Second All-Star Game Set Monday

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It doesn't require a course in motivational research to figure out why the second 1959 All-Star baseball game is being played in Los Angeles.

With a typewriter, you can hit squarely on the reason with the tap of a single key—$

The season's second All-Star match, to be played at the Coliseum Monday, was scheduled after the New York Yankees came out here in May and met the Dodgers in an exhibition that drew 93,103, the largest crowd in U.S. baseball history.

If the majors didn't know it then, they must surely realize by now that Monday's game won't do that kind of business.

But they'll play it anyway. And the players, who get the proceeds for their pension fund, will just have to be satisfied with a crowd of perhaps 45,000 or 55,000 and maybe a half million dollars in Revenue.

The rosters of the two leagues will be much the same as they were in Pittsburgh July 7, when the Nationals won 5-4 and cut the American League's lead in the 26-year-old series to 15-11. Each manager was permitted to add three players to his squad for the second game and to select new pitchers. Casey Stengel of the Americans made some new pitching selections but Fred Haney of the Nationals didn't know he had this option, so he'll have the same staff.

The game starts at 4 p.m. local time (7 p.m. EDT) when the evening traffic jam is approaching its ghastly maturity here. Many people undoubtedly will elect to stay home and see the show on TV.

Powers' Pinch Homer Wins For Redlegs, 5-4

CINCINNATI (AP) — Johnny Powers is an outfielder for the Cincinnati Reds, but chances are most fans don't know it.

The Reds beat Chicago Friday night, 5-4, on the strength of his home run—in the clutch, too. But you don't hear much about Powers.

John Calvin Powers occupies a special limbo in big league baseball. He's a utility outfielder—a man considered not quite good enough to be a starter but with enough talent to take over for an injured starter.

The Reds' outfield now has the prize rookie, Vada Pinson, and veteran slugger Gus Bell. Frank Thomas, a fielder, and Jerry Lynch, a hitter, share the third spot.

Powers is a 28-year-old Alabama strong boy whose chief talent, naturally enough, is hitting. He came to the Reds in a trade with Pittsburgh last winter.

Friday night the Reds had stacked up a 4-2 lead, but starter Don Newcombe had to leave in the eighth inning because an old groin muscle injury flared up.

Jim Brosnan took over and lost no time getting into hot water.

In the ninth, Bobby Thomson singled and George Altman promptly homered, squaring the issue, 4-4.

Starting the Reds' half of the ninth, 14 Rhinelanders had been retired in a row by the Cubs' pitching. Willie Jones and Roy McMillan made it 16. They both struck out.

Powers got the nod to hit for pitcher Brosnan, and slammed the game - winning homer into the right field bleachers. It was his second pinch homer in six games.

The Cubs had struck for a first inning run on Tony Taylor's double and Ernie Banks' single. One more Chicago marker came in the third when Taylor walked, reached second on Alvin Dark's single and Jim Marshall doubled him home.

But Cincinnati started scoring with one run in the third. Newk singled, and singles by Pinson and Bell brought him home.

The three-run fourth inning was the Reds' big effort. Singles by Jerry Lynch, Jones and McMillan loaded the bases and Newk's walk forced in one run. Then came a clean two-run single by Johnny Temple. Reliefer Bill Henry shut down the inning.

The second of three games with Chicago comes today with Glen Hobbie slated to oppose Bob Purkey.

Len Matthews Wins Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—If you saw Friday night's fight between Len Matthews and Candy McFarland, you must have been wondering what they were talking about. You couldn't have been wondering who was going to win for Matthews won the all-Philadelphia main event from here to Philadelphia.

"Get ready, I'm coming," snarled Candy who was in reverse gear most of the 10 rounds.

"I'll be here," answered Matthews. He was, too. After chasing Candy for six rounds he caught up with him in the seventh and eighth and gave him his lumps. Again in the 10th, he floored Candy with a left hook. Candy was up at two but had to take an automatic eight-count.

"He kept trying to pull that Sugar Ray stuff on me, getting my mind off my business," said Matthews. Robinson, the middleweight champ (in New York State) was working in Candy's corner as a second.

"In the last round I told him 'I'm going to take you out of here because you're too fresh,'" said Matthews. "He tried to sneak punch me with chatter like that Sugar Ray told him."

The decision for Matthews was unanimous. Judge Artie Aidala had it 9-1, Judge Joe Eppy 8-2 and Referee Al Berl 6-3-1. The AP card also was 9-1. Matthews weighed 135, McFarland 135½ pounds.

Rate Boosts Granted To Electric Concern

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—In a 2-1 decision, the Utilities Commission has granted rate increases sought for eight months by the Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co.

The decision Friday means an increase of a dollar to $1.50 a month on residential users' electric bills. The new billing starts Monday, but affects only Columbus and unincorporated areas of Franklin County.

However, the utility is expected to seek similar increases in its 23-county area in the next month.

Schools To Open Sept. 2

910 To Enroll In Western Beaver

An enrollment of 910 students, with about 140 to enter the first grade, is expected by the Western Beaver County Schools when students report Sept. 2 for the new term, Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal, announced.

A County Institute will be held Aug. 31 and a teachers' meeting Sept. 1. The present three buildings have been painted during the summer and are reported to be ready for the opening of school, Meredith said.

THE DISTRICT, which includes Glasgow Borough and Industry and Ohio Townships, is entering its second year as a merged district.

Grades 1-4 at Fairview School and Grades 1 and 2 at Ohio View School will again be on half-day sessions until the Ray W. Snyder School is completed, about midterm. The new 12-room elementary building will eliminate all half-day sessions in the district.

Meredith said approval has been received from the Department of Public Instruction for construction of a Junior - Senior High School. It will be built through the State School Building Authority and B. J. McCandless, Ellwood City architect, is working on plans for the $2 million project.

STUDENTS IN grades 9-12 are sent to other systems for their secondary education on a tuition basis, he said. About 30 attended Midland Lincoln High School, 2 at Beaver High School and a few at various other high schools, he said.

Teachers for the 3 schools include 17 at Fairview, 2 at Industry and 8 at Ohio View. Fairview will have a custodian, a janitoress, a head cook and helper. There will be a custodian at Industry and Ohio View each, he said.

The school calendar calls for students to attend 180 days and the faculty 183 days. Extra days for the faculty will be used for in-service education and clerical days, he said.

THIS YEAR two committees of teachers will evaluate and examine textbooks and educational materials in the fields of English and science. Last year committees evaluated reading and arithmetic programs.

The Board of Education has approved a full-time nurse and she will be hired at the board meeting Monday at 8 p. m. at Fairview School in Ohio Township. An additional clerk will also be employed.

Bids for furniture for the Ray W. Snyder School will be opened at a special meeting of the board and the Western Beaver County Authority Thursday at Fairview School. Fuel bids will also be opened, Mrs. Evelyn Perine, secretary to the supervising principal, said.

Schools To Open Sept. 2

910 To Enroll In Western Beaver

An enrollment of 910 students, with about 140 to enter the first grade, is expected by the Western Beaver County Schools when students report Sept. 2 for the new term, Frank A. Meredith, supervising principal, announced.

A County Institute will be held Aug. 31 and a teachers' meeting Sept. 1. The present three buildings have been painted during the summer and are reported to be ready for the opening of school, Meredith said.

THE DISTRICT, which includes Glasgow Borough and Industry and Ohio Townships, is entering its second year as a merged district.

Grades 1-4 at Fairview School and Grades 1 and 2 at Ohio View School will again be on half-day sessions until the Ray W. Snyder School is completed, about midterm. The new 12-room elementary building will eliminate all half-day sessions in the district.

Meredith said approval has been received from the Department of Public Instruction for construction of a Junior - Senior High School. It will be built through the State School Building Authority and B. J. McCandless, Ellwood City architect, is working on plans for the $2 million project.

STUDENTS IN grades 9-12 are sent to other systems for their secondary education on a tuition basis, he said. About 30 attended Midland Lincoln High School, 2 at Beaver High School and a few at various other high schools, he said.

Teachers for the 3 schools include 17 at Fairview, 2 at Industry and 8 at Ohio View. Fairview will have a custodian, a janitoress, a head cook and helper. There will be a custodian at Industry and Ohio View each, he said.

The school calendar calls for students to attend 180 days and the faculty 183 days. Extra days for the faculty will be used for in-service education and clerical days, he said.

THIS YEAR two committees of teachers will evaluate and examine textbooks and educational materials in the fields of English and science. Last year committees evaluated reading and arithmetic programs.

The Board of Education has approved a full-time nurse and she will be hired at the board meeting Monday at 8 p. m. at Fairview School in Ohio Township. An additional clerk will also be employed.

Bids for furniture for the Ray W. Snyder School will be opened at a special meeting of the board and the Western Beaver County Authority Thursday at Fairview School. Fuel bids will also be opened, Mrs. Evelyn Perine, secretary to the supervising principal, said.

river, he plumb tired out. He just sat down on a rock. I said 'Pete are you coming or not. He just sat there. I went on. That's the last time I saw him."

(Mahany's body was found Sunday near where Owens left him.)

"I built a raft of logs and my elastic belt. I left three notes in the sand. One said Manson Owens going on raft downriver to bridge. Another, said Pete Mahany okay last time I saw him in ravine. Third note said Father Gavigan probably dead, fell 150 feet.

"I started downstream. All along I prayed every minute of every day. I never prayed so much in my life. I hit those rapids. I like to drown. I kept praying. The water was like a washing machine. The raft turned over and I went under. I made it to the bank.

"I decided to get to the other side. There was no vegetation on this side. I chickened. Then I said Owens, you ain't a man unless you do it. I jumped in and swam to that sandbar.

"Then yesterday, I made a sign. I piled rocks and piled rocks. I was determined they would see this sign. They hadn't seen the others I had made.

"They saw it.

"I never gave up hope. I only thought of death once and that's when I flipped over in the rapids. I prayed, that's what helped me."

Poison From Beets Claims Second Victim

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The paralyzing poison in a jar of home-canned beets claimed its second victim Friday night. Of the four who survive, one is near death, two are in serious condition and the last may be out of danger.

All six were felled by dreaded botulism — a nerve-attacking poison produced by bacteria which grow in improperly cooked food. A doctor here calls it one of the most deadly poison substances known to man.

Fifteen-year-old Wanda Nelson died in her iron lung Friday evening. Early Thursday, Aaron Gruwell, 74, a east Idaho farmer, also died.

A new shipment of rare botulism antitoxin was expected this morning as doctors fought to save the survivors. In gravest condition was Wanda's father Kenneth, 45, Kansas City, Mo. A doctor said he was in a coma, the nerves controlling his breathing muscles completely paralyzed.

Nelson and his wife Naomi, 41, were in iron lungs. Another lung stood by in case it was needed by elderly Lavicia Gruwell, Nelson's mother and Aaron Gruwell's wife.

Martha Nelson, 4, another daughter, was under treatment. But the doctor said she may not have eaten as much of the deadly beets as the others because her condition appeared to be satisfactory.

Excise Tax Hikes Have Eased Ohio Financial Crisis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's financial crisis has been somewhat eased, says the Department of Taxation.

Excise tax boosts by the DiSalle administration have raised state income by more than 1½ million dollars in June, the department reported.

In just 22 days the two-cents-a-pack hike on cigarettes brought $1,233,000 of the increase. The tax boost was effective June 8.

An extra $58,000 from the tax increase on 3.2 beer, however, was more than offset by $115,000 less received from high-power beer taxes than in the same period last year.

The wagering tax boost brought in the rest of the over-all amount. Effective for 26 days during June, it added $380,000. This tax is on pari-mutuel horserace betting.

'Woodsman,' 8, Safe After 30-Hour Ordeal

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — "I saw some bear tracks and some snakes and a rabbit but I didn't get scared at all."

So reported Danny Oswald, 8, a woodsman who learned his forest tricks watching television. Danny survived 30 hours in the high timber country of east Idaho's Targhee National Forest after straying from a family berry picking outing.

He was found Friday night by two men who joined the widespread search for him. Danny was tired, dirty and slightly wet from wading across creeks. But he wasn't hurt.

Well-Heeled Now

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The burglar knew just what he wanted. Police said someone threw a brick through the show window of a pawn shop and took only a pair of shoes.

Poison From Beets Claims Second Victim

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — The paralyzing poison in a jar of home-canned beets claimed its second victim Friday night. Of the four who survive, one is near death, two are in serious condition and the last may be out of danger.

All six were felled by dreaded botulism — a nerve-attacking poison produced by bacteria which grow in improperly cooked food. A doctor here calls it one of the most deadly poison substances known to man.

Fifteen-year-old Wanda Nelson died in her iron lung Friday evening. Early Thursday, Aaron Gruwell, 74, a east Idaho farmer, also died.

A new shipment of rare botulism antitoxin was expected this morning as doctors fought to save the survivors. In gravest condition was Wanda's father Kenneth, 45, Kansas City, Mo. A doctor said he was in a coma, the nerves controlling his breathing muscles completely paralyzed.

Nelson and his wife Naomi, 41, were in iron lungs. Another lung stood by in case it was needed by elderly Lavicia Gruwell, Nelson's mother and Aaron Gruwell's wife.

Martha Nelson, 4, another daughter, was under treatment. But the doctor said she may not have eaten as much of the deadly beets as the others because her condition appeared to be satisfactory.

Excise Tax Hikes Have Eased Ohio Financial Crisis

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's financial crisis has been somewhat eased, says the Department of Taxation.

Excise tax boosts by the DiSalle administration have raised state income by more than 1½ million dollars in June, the department reported.

In just 22 days the two-cents-a-pack hike on cigarettes brought $1,233,000 of the increase. The tax boost was effective June 8.

An extra $58,000 from the tax increase on 3.2 beer, however, was more than offset by $115,000 less received from high-power beer taxes than in the same period last year.

The wagering tax boost brought in the rest of the over-all amount. Effective for 26 days during June, it added $380,000. This tax is on pari-mutuel horserace betting.

'Woodsman,' 8, Safe After 30-Hour Ordeal

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — "I saw some bear tracks and some snakes and a rabbit but I didn't get scared at all."

So reported Danny Oswald, 8, a woodsman who learned his forest tricks watching television. Danny survived 30 hours in the high timber country of east Idaho's Targhee National Forest after straying from a family berry picking outing.

He was found Friday night by two men who joined the widespread search for him. Danny was tired, dirty and slightly wet from wading across creeks. But he wasn't hurt.

Well-Heeled Now

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — The burglar knew just what he wanted. Police said someone threw a brick through the show window of a pawn shop and took only a pair of shoes.

$342,015 Cost Seen For New IBOP Quarters

No date has been set for the start of construction for a new headquarters for the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, a spokesman said today.

Meanwhile, a cost analysis for the building estimates the total at $342,015, the Potters Herald, official union newspaper, said in discussing the major decisions reached at the 65th annual convention held last month in Montreal.

Prepared by Robert F. Beatty, architect, the analysis estimates $292,656 for the building proper, $15,000 for drives and parking areas, $5,000 for landscaping, $10,000 for equipment and the architect's commission at $19,359.

The spokesman declined to reveal the exact location for the new structure, pointing out it will be "in the East Liverpool area" but that two sites are under consideration.

However, unconfirmed reports indicate the site expected to be selected is located about eight miles north of the city on Route 7.

Meanwhile, the principal provisions for a proposed pension plan for international officers and representatives also were revealed in the Herald.

The pension plan was approved by the convention, which provided the proposed plan must be submitted to a vote of the trade. No date has been set for the referendum.

The proposed plan calls for $10,000 to be transferred from the defense fund to a pension fund. Participants will pay 3 per cent of total earnings in excess of $350 a month into the pension fund and the balance of the cost, equal to approximately 9 per cent of the total payroll for the year beginning Aug. 1, 1960, will be paid into the fund from the defense collection.

Elective officers and international representatives will be eligible after completing one year of service and reaching 30 years of age provided they will have completed 15 years service by their retirement date.

The minimum pension will be $75 a month and the maximum shall not exceed 22 per cent of the average monthly earnings during participation.

The pension plan will be governed by a board to be appointed by members of the executive board. It will include one from the general or chinaware division, one from the refractories section and one from the sanitary division.

Midget Racer's Driver Cited For No Plates

A 20-year-old East End youth was freed today on a charge of operating a midget racer without license plates but received a stern warning from Acting Municipal Judge Robert A. Kapp that operators of the tiny cars must comply with all regulations covering motor vehicles when they are on city streets.

William P. Boyd, 1940 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., and a youngster about 14 were cited by Patrolman Charles Winters Friday afternoon after police received a complaint the boys were driving the midgets on Pennsylvania Ave. Ext.

Boyd pleaded not guilty when arraigned this morning. The juvenile is due to appear before Chris Pusey, juvenile officer.

Winters testified this morning the car had no license plates as required by state law for all motor vehicles and said Boyd admitted driving the car. However, Boyd denied the statement when he took the stand.

Judge Kapp warned the youth license plates are required on the midget cars and drivers must comply with all other regulations governing the operation of motor vehicles.

Roy E. Icenhower of Lisbon R. D. 1 was fined $15 and costs by the judge for reckless operation. Police arrested Icenhower at 1:30 a. m. today after he traveled 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone and 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

Three motorists cited Friday night by the State Highway Patrol forfeited bonds of $16 each.

Jerome J. Drago, 220 8th St., Wellsville, forfeited on a charge of speeding on Route 7.

John Perkins Jr., 328 Ohio Ave., Midland, and Willie Floyd Thorn of Wintersville, cited at 11:35 p. m. on Route 7 near the intersection with Route 30, also forfeited.

The patrol cited Thorn for following traffic too closely, declaring his car slid sideways to avoid a collision when traffic ahead stopped. Perkins was cited for passing over a yellow line.

The front seat of a North Side man's auto was damaged this morning when a cigarette ignited the upholstery, firemen reported.

The department was called to the home of Frank Irving, 1209 Jennings Ave., at 8 a. m. to quell the blaze. Firemen said the seat had apparently been smouldering for some time.

Firemen were called to Erie St. at 2:23 p. m. yesterday when a short circuit set fire to the motor of an auto owned by Robert Farthingham, 738 Sophia St. The fire was out on arrival, they said.

Authorities In Hancock Discuss Mystery Arm

NEW CUMBERLAND — A conference was held Friday at the Weirton General Hospital by police officers and doctors seeking a solution to the mystery of a mummified arm found here about two weeks ago.

Meeting were Nick Palcic, chief deputy sheriff; Trooper D. L. Lake of the Weirton detachment of the state police, Squire John D. Herron, and Dr David Thompson, Dr. George Naymick and Dr. Michael Salka.

Police emphasized that the case is not closed. However, an FBI pathologist said it is a medical specimen probably buried by a doctor at the turn of the century.

Taft Would Have Backed Ike's Veto, Morton Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thruston B. Morton (R-Ky) says he believes that the late Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) would have backed the Eisenhower administration's position on housing legislation.

Morton made the comment to a reporter after being asked about the strategy of Democrats on the Senate Housing subcommittee in playing a recording of a Taft speech made in May 1953, shortly before Taft's death.

Taft's speech endorsed strong federal housing programs, particularly low-rent public housing. Democrats made it plain they hope this will aid their drive to get enough votes to override President Eisenhower's veto of the housing bill.

Morton, who is chairman of the Republican National Committee, said the Ohioan's position in favor of broad housing measures was well-known. But he added that Taft also was much concerned about a balanced budget and excessive taxation.

"In the light of conditions as they exist today, I believe Sen. Taft would be a supporter of the President's views on this bill," Morton said.

Morton also remarked that he believes the good showing of the Republicans in the Hawaii election this week will make it harder to get the two-thirds margin necessary to override the veto.

The GOP won three of the five major seats at stake in the election after being considered the underdog on the basis of primary returns.

"I think some Republicans who may have decided to vote to override will reconsider their position in view of the Hawaii outcome," Morton said.

"All these matters have political overtones. I think the Democrats realize now that there is not as much political mileage in this veto as they thought there was," Morton added.

Pennsylvanian Jailed For Drunken Driving

A Pennsylvania motorist, cited by Wellsville police for drunken driving, was fined $200 and costs and sentenced to 3 days in jail by Mayor William Shoub. Three other drivers forfeited bonds and two were fined.

James E. Douglas of Oakmont, was jailed on the drunken driving charge.

James Slanaker of East Liverpool forfeited a $25 bond posted for speeding; Erwin Brown of Irondale R. D. 1 forfeited a $15 bond for reckless operation, and Douglas Steebner of Summit Dr., East Liverpool, forfeited a $10 bond for crossing the yellow line.

Alvia Allen, cited by the patrol for speeding, and William Brown, cited by the patrol for driving left of center, were fined $15 and costs each.

$342,015 Cost Seen For New IBOP Quarters

No date has been set for the start of construction for a new headquarters for the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters, a spokesman said today.

Meanwhile, a cost analysis for the building estimates the total at $342,015, the Potters Herald, official union newspaper, said in discussing the major decisions reached at the 65th annual convention held last month in Montreal.

Prepared by Robert F. Beatty, architect, the analysis estimates $292,656 for the building proper, $15,000 for drives and parking areas, $5,000 for landscaping, $10,000 for equipment and the architect's commission at $19,359.

The spokesman declined to reveal the exact location for the new structure, pointing out it will be "in the East Liverpool area" but that two sites are under consideration.

However, unconfirmed reports indicate the site expected to be selected is located about eight miles north of the city on Route 7.

Meanwhile, the principal provisions for a proposed pension plan for international officers and representatives also were revealed in the Herald.

The pension plan was approved by the convention, which provided the proposed plan must be submitted to a vote of the trade. No date has been set for the referendum.

The proposed plan calls for $10,000 to be transferred from the defense fund to a pension fund. Participants will pay 3 per cent of total earnings in excess of $350 a month into the pension fund and the balance of the cost, equal to approximately 9 per cent of the total payroll for the year beginning Aug. 1, 1960, will be paid into the fund from the defense collection.

Elective officers and international representatives will be eligible after completing one year of service and reaching 30 years of age provided they will have completed 15 years service by their retirement date.

The minimum pension will be $75 a month and the maximum shall not exceed 22 per cent of the average monthly earnings during participation.

The pension plan will be governed by a board to be appointed by members of the executive board. It will include one from the general or chinaware division, one from the refractories section and one from the sanitary division.

Midget Racer's Driver Cited For No Plates

A 20-year-old East End youth was freed today on a charge of operating a midget racer without license plates but received a stern warning from Acting Municipal Judge Robert A. Kapp that operators of the tiny cars must comply with all regulations covering motor vehicles when they are on city streets.

William P. Boyd, 1940 Pennsylvania Ave. Ext., and a youngster about 14 were cited by Patrolman Charles Winters Friday afternoon after police received a complaint the boys were driving the midgets on Pennsylvania Ave. Ext.

Boyd pleaded not guilty when arraigned this morning. The juvenile is due to appear before Chris Pusey, juvenile officer.

Winters testified this morning the car had no license plates as required by state law for all motor vehicles and said Boyd admitted driving the car. However, Boyd denied the statement when he took the stand.

Judge Kapp warned the youth license plates are required on the midget cars and drivers must comply with all other regulations governing the operation of motor vehicles.

Roy E. Icenhower of Lisbon R. D. 1 was fined $15 and costs by the judge for reckless operation. Police arrested Icenhower at 1:30 a. m. today after he traveled 60 miles an hour in a 35-mile zone and 90 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone on the East Liverpool-Wellsville Rd.

Three motorists cited Friday night by the State Highway Patrol forfeited bonds of $16 each.

Jerome J. Drago, 220 8th St., Wellsville, forfeited on a charge of speeding on Route 7.

John Perkins Jr., 328 Ohio Ave., Midland, and Willie Floyd Thorn of Wintersville, cited at 11:35 p. m. on Route 7 near the intersection with Route 30, also forfeited.

The patrol cited Thorn for following traffic too closely, declaring his car slid sideways to avoid a collision when traffic ahead stopped. Perkins was cited for passing over a yellow line.

Permit Hearing Set

SALEM — The Salem Junior Democratic Club has been cited to appear before the Ohio Board of Liquor Control Thursday at Columbus to answer charges of violating regulations by display of gambling devices—raffle tickets. The club was cited July 24.

The town of Wagon Mound N. M., gets its name from a wagon-shaped rock, a landmark on the old Sante Fe Trail.

Cigarette Causes Blaze In Auto's Upholstery

The front seat of a North Side man's auto was damaged this morning when a cigarette ignited the upholstery, firemen reported.

The department was called to the home of Frank Irving, 1209 Jennings Ave., at 8 a. m. to quell the blaze. Firemen said the seat had apparently been smouldering for some time.

Firemen were called to Erie St. at 2:23 p. m. yesterday when a short circuit set fire to the motor of an auto owned by Robert Farthingham, 738 Sophia St. The fire was out on arrival, they said.

Authorities In Hancock Discuss Mystery Arm

NEW CUMBERLAND — A conference was held Friday at the Weirton General Hospital by police officers and doctors seeking a solution to the mystery of a mummified arm found here about two weeks ago.

Meeting were Nick Palcic, chief deputy sheriff; Trooper D. L. Lake of the Weirton detachment of the state police, Squire John D. Herron, and Dr David Thompson, Dr. George Naymick and Dr. Michael Salka.

Police emphasized that the case is not closed. However, an FBI pathologist said it is a medical specimen probably buried by a doctor at the turn of the century.

Taft Would Have Backed Ike's Veto, Morton Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Thruston B. Morton (R-Ky) says he believes that the late Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) would have backed the Eisenhower administration's position on housing legislation.

Morton made the comment to a reporter after being asked about the strategy of Democrats on the Senate Housing subcommittee in playing a recording of a Taft speech made in May 1953, shortly before Taft's death.

Taft's speech endorsed strong federal housing programs, particularly low-rent public housing. Democrats made it plain they hope this will aid their drive to get enough votes to override President Eisenhower's veto of the housing bill.

Morton, who is chairman of the Republican National Committee, said the Ohioan's position in favor of broad housing measures was well-known. But he added that Taft also was much concerned about a balanced budget and excessive taxation.

"In the light of conditions as they exist today, I believe Sen. Taft would be a supporter of the President's views on this bill," Morton said.

Morton also remarked that he believes the good showing of the Republicans in the Hawaii election this week will make it harder to get the two-thirds margin necessary to override the veto.

The GOP won three of the five major seats at stake in the election after being considered the underdog on the basis of primary returns.

"I think some Republicans who may have decided to vote to override will reconsider their position in view of the Hawaii outcome," Morton said.

"All these matters have political overtones. I think the Democrats realize now that there is not as much political mileage in this veto as they thought there was," Morton added.
